Dear Name of Head of Admission Committee:

I am very happy to announce that I will be providing full financial support for my nephew Name during his course at university starting on [Date].

The cost of tuition is about $10,000 per semester so it's important we're able to keep this up! My bank statement from Bank shows how much money has been set aside each month until graduation in two-year's time which should be enough given our current economic climate.

I hope you'll agree with me when we say: "deposited into an account"

Sincerely,

American Immigration Questions and Answers Olusegun Asekun, 2017-12 ABOUT THE BOOK Knowledge is important and the right answers to your questions make all the difference. If you lack the right knowledge, it will be difficult, if not impossible, for you to achieve your dreams. Immigrants from all over the world—Africa, Europe, Asia, South America, etc.—arrive in the United States of America every day bringing their hopes and their dreams with them, but some never achieve that dream. In this mind-expanding book American Immigration Questions and Answers, Olusegun Asekun gets to the heart of the deepest aspirations of immigrants to legally visit, live, work, and school in the USA. Through relevant questions, enlightening answers, strong facts, intriguing cases, and helpful tips, the author shows you how to navigate the complex path of American immigration. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Olusegun Asekun is an experienced immigration attorney. He is also a senior partner at The Law Office of Olu Asekun PC, located in Arlington, Texas. He has been in active law practice for 24 years and has been practicing exclusive immigration law in the United States for more than 13 years. Olusegun Asekun is a member of the Nigerian Bar Association, American Bar Association, American Immigration Lawyers Association. Home Buying 101 Jon Gorey, 2022-02-15 Buying a first home can be both exciting and nerve-racking. Will you qualify for a mortgage? Is your dream home achievable? How do you make sure your offer will beat others? Don't worry now; you can arm yourself with the information you need to know before you begin the hunt. In Home Buying 101, you will learn all the skills you need to find the right house at the right price with financing that fits your budget. Full of nuts and bolts advice and organized in an easy-to-read format, this book will teach you all the basics of deciding the right time to buy, getting your finances in order, deciphering the MLS, reading the listings for clues, types of mortgage loans, and much more. With the help of this guide, you'll learn how to find the house of your dreams at a price you can afford. Atlantic Families

Sarah Pearsall, 2008-11-27 The Atlantic represented a world of opportunity in the eighteenth century, but it represented division, also separating families across its coasts. Whether due to economic shifts, changing political landscapes, imperial ambitions, or even simply personal tragedy, many families found themselves fractured and disoriented by the growth and later fissure of a larger Atlantic world. Such dislocation posed considerable challenges to all individuals who viewed orderly family relations as both a general and a personal ideal. The more fortunate individuals who thus found themselves all at sea were able to use family letters with attendant emphases on familiarity, sensibility, and credit in order to remain connected in times and places of considerable disconnection. Portraying the family as a unified, affectionate, and happy entity in such letters provided a means of surmounting concerns about societies fractured by physical distance, global wars, and increasing social stratification It could also provide social and economic leverage to individual men and women in certain circumstances Sarah Pearsall explores the lives and letters of these families revealing the sometimes shocking stories of those divided by sea Ranging across the Anglophone Atlantic including mainland American colonies and states Britain and the British Caribbean Pearsall argues that it was this expanding Atlantic world much more than the American Revolution that reshaped contemporary ideals about families as much as families themselves reshaped the transatlantic world The Army Lawyer, 1987

Letters, Kinship, and Social Mobility in Nigeria Olufemi Vaughan, 2023-08-15 In 2003 Olufemi Vaughan received from his ninety five year old father Abiodun a trove of more than 3 000 letters written by four generations of his family in Ibadan Nigeria between 1926 to 1994 The men and women who wrote these letters had emerged from the religious social and educational institutions established by the Church Missionary Society the preeminent Anglican mission in the Atlantic Nigerian region following the imposition of British colonial rule Abiodun recruited to be a civil servant in the colonial administration became the patriarch of a prominent family with historical roots in both West Africa and the Americas his family was the subject of articles in Ebony and Jet as well as in acclaimed histories Reading deeply in these letters Olufemi realized he had a unique set of sources that could be used to illuminate everyday life for this important segment of Nigerian society Letter writing was a dominant form of communication for western educated elites in colonial Africa especially in Nigeria Exposure and an altruistic sense of nationalism were among the factors that led people to begin exchanging letters particularly in their interactions with British colonial authorities Through careful textual analysis and broad contextualization Vaughan reconstructs dominant storylines including themes such as people's relationships with colonial authorities and bureaucracy ideas about faith and kinship nationalism and communal development Vaughan brings his prodigious skills as a historian to bear on this wealth of information bringing to life a portrait at once intimate and expansive of a community during a transformative period in African history Sports Ministry David B. acquiring ever greater importance and topicality in today's world. The focus of this book lies in the complex and multi-level processes of migrant transnationalism in four transnational spaces: India, UK, Morocco, France, and Turkey, Germany, and Estonia, Finland. The main question is how people's activities across national borders emerge, function, and change, and how they are related to the processes of governance in an increasingly complex and interconnected world. The book is based on the findings of a three-year research project TRANS-NET, which brought together internationally acknowledged experts from Europe, Asia, and Africa. As no single discipline could investigate all the components of the topic in question, the project adopted a multi-disciplinary approach. Among the contributors, there are sociologists, policy analysts, political scientists, social and cultural anthropologists, educational scientists, and economists. The chapters show that people's transnational linkages and migration across national boundaries entail manifold political, economic, social, cultural, and educational implications. Although political, social, economic, educational transformations fostered by migrant transnationalism constitute the main topic of the book, the starting assumption is that the large-scale institutional and actor-centred patterns of transformation come about through a constellation of parallel processes. Sir William Garrow John Hostettler, Richard Braby, 2011

Sir William Garrow was born in Middlesex, England, in 1760. He entered the legal profession and became the dominant figure at Old Bailey, London's Central Criminal Court, from 1783 to 1793. Later on, he was a Member of Parliament, a Solicitor General, an Attorney General, and finally a judge and a lawmaker within the English Common Law Tradition. Aside from BBC1 TV's prime-time drama series Garrow's Law, the story of Sir William Garrow's unique contribution to the development of English law and Parliamentary affairs is little known by the general public. This book tells the real story of the man behind the drama. Garrow dared to challenge the entrenched legal ways and means. His gifts to the world include altering the relationship between judge and jury, the former had until then dominated over the latter in criminal trials, helping to forge the presumption of innocence, rules of evidence, and ensuring a general right to put forward a defense using a trained lawyer. He gave new m

Culture and International Law Hikmahanto Juwana, Jeffrey Thomas, Mohd Hazmi Mohd Rusli, Dhiana Puspitawati, 2019-09-03 In this era of globalization, International Law plays a significant role in facing rapid development of various legal issues. Cultural preservation has emerged as an important legal issue that should be considered by States. This book consists of academic papers presented and discussed during the 9th International Conference of the Centre of International Law Studies (CILS) Conference held in Malang, Indonesia, 2-3 October 2018. The title of the book represents the major theme of the conference: Culture and International Law. It is argued that along with globalization, cultural preservation is slowly ignored by States. Various papers presented in the book cover five topics: cultural heritage, cultural rights, culture and economic activity, culture and armed conflict, and a general topic. The authors of the papers are outstanding academics from various countries: Lithuania, United States of America, Australia, Thailand, and Indonesia. The conference was organized by Universitas Indonesia in collaboration with Brawijaya University. This book aims to give a useful contribution to the existing literature on International Law specifically focussing on cultural issues from the perspective of cultural heritage and rights economic as well as armed conflict
