John Heartfield and the Agitated Image Andrés Mario Zervigón, 2012-12-01 Working in Germany between the two world wars John Heartfield born Helmut Herzfeld 1891-1968 developed an innovative method of appropriating and reusing photographs to powerful political effect As a pioneer of modern photomontage he sliced up mass media photos with his iconic scissors and then reassembled the fragments into compositions that utterly transformed the meaning of the originals In John Heartfield and the Agitated Image Andrés Mario Zervigón explores this crucial period in the life and work of a brilliant radical artist whose desire to disclose the truth obscured by the mainstream press and imperial propaganda made him a de facto prosecutor of Germany's visual culture Zervigón charts the evolution of Heartfield's photomontage from an act of antiwar resistance into a formalized and widely disseminated political art in the Weimar Republic Appearing on everything from campaign posters to book covers the photomonteur's notorious pictures challenged well worn assumption and correspondingly walked a dangerous tightrope over the political social and cultural cauldron that was interwar Germany Zervigón explains how Heartfield's engagement with montage arose from a broadly shared dissatisfaction with photography's capacity to represent the modern world The result was likely the most important combination of avant garde art and politics in the twentieth century A rare look at Heartfield's early and middle years as an artist and designer this book provides a new understanding of photography's role at this critical juncture in history

If Walls Could Talk Juliet Blackwell, 2010-12-07 Melanie Turner has made quite a name for herself remodeling historic houses in the San Francisco Bay Area But more than her reputation is on the line in the first novel in the New York Times bestselling Haunted Home Renovation Mystery series At her newest renovation project a run down Pacific Heights mansion Mel is visited by the ghost of a colleague who recently met a bad end with power tools Mel hopes that by tracking down the killer she can rid herself of the ghostly presence of the murdered man Mel's only clue is an odd box she discovers inside a wall at the job site If she can make sense of its mysterious contents she might be able to nail a killer before she herself becomes the next construction casualty Nathalie Djurberg Nathalie Djurberg, Germano Celant, 2008 The project Turn into Me 2008 created expressly by Nathalie Djurberg for the exhibition space of the Fondazione Prada consists of a series of models that allude to human body parts and simple natural elements such as a potato or a tree In some instances these become pavilions inside which the videos produced for the occasion are projected Social Concern and Left Politics in Jewish American Art Matthew Baigell, 2015-04-03 This book explores the important and barely examined connections between the humanitarian concerns embedded in the religious heritage of Jewish American artists and the appeal of radical political causes between the years of the Great Migration from Eastern Europe in the 1880s and the beginning of World War II in the late 1930s Visual material consists primarily of political cartoons published in leftwing Yiddish and English language newspapers and magazines Artists often commented on current events using biblical and other Jewish references meaning that whatever were their political concerns their Jewish heritage was ever present By the late 1940s the obvious ties between political interests and religious concerns largely disappeared The text set against events of the times the Russian Revolution the Depression and the rise of fascism during the 1930s as well as life on New York's Lower East Side includes artists statements as well as the thoughts of religious literary and political figures ranging from Marx to Trotsky to newspaper editor Abraham Cahan to contemporary art critics including Meyer Schapiro Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology , 1994 Sympathy for the Devil Dominic Molon, Diederich Diederichsen, Anthony Elms, Richard Hell, Dan Graham, Matthew Higgs, Jutta Koether, Bob Nickas, Mike Kelley, Jan Tumlrir, 2007-01-01 Catalogus bij een tentoonstelling over de relatie tussen rockmuziek en avantgardistische kunst sinds de zestiger jaren The Museum of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art , 1840 The Museum of Foreign Literature, Science and Art Robert Walsh, John Jay Smith, 1840 Conversations with Ernest Hemingway Ernest Hemingway, 1986 These firsthand interviews and newspaper accounts constitute a valuable edition to the sizable and ever growing Hemingway shelf They let Papa speak his mind and the inimitable Hemingway voice comes through clearly the boastfulness the fierce ambition the love of prizefighting and the bullring the snappish impatience with questions and questioners he didn't like and the high seriousness and dedication to his craft The pieces from the early days are largely short snippets from newspapers it is only later from the 1940s on that Hemingway begins to get the star treatment from publications such as the New Yorker or George Plimpton's Paris Review Consequently the best comes last A splendid delicious book for Hemingway fans one well worth savoring Education and Politics in the 1990s Denis Lawton, 1992 Examines the ideological differences between the education policies of the two main political parties in the UK and discusses the emergence of these differences within the context of the 1988 Education Reform Act It also looks at the world wide influence of the New Right politics on education The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art , 1904 The Art of Coercion Reid B. C. Pauly, 2025-08-15 The Art of Coercion presents a fresh explanation for the success and failure of coercive demands in international politics Strong states are surprisingly bad at coercion History shows they prevail only a third of the time Reid B C Pauly argues that coercion often fails because targets fear punishment even if they comply In this damned if you do damned if you don t scenario targets have little reason to obey Pauly illustrates this logic in nuclear counterproliferation efforts with South Africa Iraq Libya and Iran He shows that coercers face an assurance dilemma When threats are more credible assurances not to punish are less so But without credible assurances targets may defy threats bracing for seemingly inevitable punishment For coercion to work as such coercers must not only make targets believe that they will be punished if they do not comply but also that they will not be if they do Packed with insights for any foreign policy challenge involving coercive strategies The Art of Coercion crucially corrects assumptions that tougher threats alone achieve results
