A National Study of Charter Schools Paul Berman, RPP International, 1998 The second year report of the National Study of Charter Schools updates information on charter schools presented in the first report of the study The study is a 4 year research effort September 1995 to September 1999 intended to document and analyze the charter school movement It was designed to provide information about what kind of charter schools become operational about factors that influence charter schools development and about how schools are implementing their charters The second year report presents information about charter schools for the school year 1997 97 and is based on a telephone survey designed to collect data from the 428 charter schools in operation at that time The report is also based on site visits to 91 charter schools It places charter schools in perspective by looking at their operations accountability and impact on public education It demonstrates state approaches to the charter concept including legislative mandates and focuses on characteristics of charter schools students of charter schools why charter schools are started and what attracts parents to them and challenges in the implementation of charter schools Five appendices offer information on the study s research design a state legislative overview and other information RJM

Handbook of Urban Educational Leadership Muhammad Khalifa, Noelle Witherspoon Arnold, Azadeh F. Osanloo, Cosette M. Grant, 2015-06-01 This authoritative handbook examines the community district and teacher leadership roles that affect urban schools It will serve as a foundation for pedagogical and educational leadership practices that foster social justice equity and advocacy for those who have been traditionally and historically underserved in education The handbook s ten sections cover topics as diverse as curriculum instruction and educational outcomes gender race and class higher education and leadership preparation and support Its twenty nine chapters offer both American and international perspectives

Carpetbagging America's Public Schools Curtis J. Cardine, 2017-12-13 Carpetbagging America s Public Schools probes the financial intrigue underlying the charter school industry This book is a forensic accounting analysis of the financial effects of twenty years of charter schools and vouchers on the public s investment in public education Written from an insider s perspective by an early advocate for charter schools the work exposes the underbelly of the radical deregulation of our public schools

Resources in Education, 2001 Resolved Robert Litan, 2020-10-06 Adopting a simple education reform to restore civil discourse and transform American society In this era of extreme political polarization it s tempting to believe nothing can be done to heal a nation that is so obviously divided and led by dysfunctional politicians But there is a relatively simple and powerful way to begin the healing and at the same time prepare the next generations of leaders for the rigorous demands of a constantly changing economy and society The solution offered by this intriguing book is for schools across the country to focus on developing in students the skills of successful debaters These are the skills so clearly lacking in contemporary society of listening and persuading through civil discourse backed by fact based evidence and reason Resolved explains how one simple educational reform can help address the nation s political divide and at the same time help ensure that today s young people will actually enjoy learning and thus will have the necessary skills to lead productive and economically rewarding lives The book offers practical ideas about a positive future for parents educators state legislators business leaders in fact anyone interested in how debate centered education can fundamentally change the country for the better     Herald and Presbyter ,1907     Michigan School Moderator ,1914
