

Government: The Final Study Guide

Understand how our country came to be, why we have the system we do, and how it works. After studying each chapter, consider the questions concerning the most important parts of the chapter. Some of these questions, in this list provided, perhaps will give you a good understanding of the chapter. But I suggest you think about each chapter and try to answer the questions I have provided for you. I know I want to give you the ability to think about the government and its principles. I want to give you the ability to think about the government and its principles. I want to give you the ability to think about the government and its principles.
