Rewilding in Practice Ian Convery, Steve Carver, Monica T. Engel, Sally Hawkins, Rene Beyers, Yue Cao, 2025-03-03 Rewilding is a long term and large scale process which works to restore degraded ecosystems or social ecological systems to the point that they are resilient and self sustaining and therefore requiring little in terms of conservation management Rewilding practice focuses on re establishing ecological processes including trophic levels that were lost mainly due to anthropogenic disturbance It also aims to affect a paradigm shift in human nature relationships with intentions to better understand the interdependencies between humans and nature so that people can appreciate and accommodate nature in their landscapes and make more informed and sustainable decisions about how we live In this sense rewilding has real transformational potential

The Resettlement of Sex Offenders after Custody David Thompson, Terry Thomas, 2017-07-14 Circles of Support and Accountability is a voluntary initiative that assists people with convictions for sexual offences to resettle in the community People leaving prison with such convictions often have difficulties in resettling They carry the burden of the conviction itself which may be both stigmatising and isolating and they are the subject of sex offender register requirements parole and other supervisory conditions Circles of Support and Accountability in the UK started over ten years ago and have slowly spread across the country They work closely with the police and probation services but rely entirely on volunteers prepared to give up their time to work with people often otherwise shunned by communities Circles offer support to the person concerned but also hold them accountable for their future behaviour They aim to ensure there are no more victims This book is based on original research and provides a close up picture of how these Circles of Support and Accountability work in practice It brings together for the first time the voices of all the participants from the offenders and the volunteers through to the Coordinators who link the volunteers to the professionals in the form of the police and probation services The research was commissioned by Circles UK and funded by the Wates Foundation and the University of Leeds School of Law Police Procedure and Evidence in the Criminal Justice System Barrie Archer, George Ellison, 2025-02-28 Police procedure and evidence brought to life A key text for all those on policing degree or other pre join routes this book examines police procedure and evidence in the criminal justice system providing clear and accessible information while encouraging analysis and reflection Chapters cover police powers stop and search arrest and custody disposals court procedures and disclosure and rehabilitation Uniquely it follows the journey of a fictional family who all in one way or another become involved in the criminal justice system allowing students to consider a range of possible options and outcomes and bringing the theory to life Collective Creativity for Responsible and Sustainable Business Practice Fields, Ziska, 2016-11-17 Over the years irresponsible business practices have resulted in industrial waste which is negatively impacting the environment As a result it is imperative to develop new solutions to reverse the damage Collective Creativity for Responsible and Sustainable Business Practice is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on the elimination of environmental degradation through new discoveries and opportunities provided by collective creativity Featuring extensive coverage across a range of relevant perspective and topics such as sustainable business model innovation social marketing and education and business co operatives this comprehensive and timely publication is an essential reference source for business leaders managers academics and community leaders seeking current research on sustainable management practices Practical Channel Hydraulics, 2nd edition Donald W. Knight, Caroline Hazlewood, Rob Lamb, Paul G. Samuels, Koji Shiono, 2018-03-05 Practical Channel Hydraulics is a technical guide for estimating flood water levels in rivers using the innovative software known as the Conveyance and Afflux Estimation System CES AES The stand alone software is freely available at HR Wallingford s website www.riverconveyance.net The conveyance engine has also been embedded within industry standard river modelling software such as InfoWorks RS and Flood Modeller Pro This 2nd Edition has been greatly expanded through the addition of Chapters 6 8 which now supply the background to the Shiono and Knight Method SKM upon which the CES AES is largely based With the need to estimate river levels more accurately computational methods are now frequently embedded in flood risk management procedures as for example in ISO 18320 Determination of the stage discharge relationship in which both the SKM and CES feature The CES AES incorporates five main components A Roughness Adviser A Conveyance Generator an Uncertainty Estimator a Backwater Module and an Afflux Estimator The SKM provides an alternative approach solving the governing equation analytically or numerically using Excel or with the short FORTRAN program provided Special attention is paid to calculating the distributions of boundary shear stress distributions in channels of different shape and to appropriate formulations for resistance and drag forces including those on trees in floodplains Worked examples are given for flows in a wide range of channel types size shape cover sinuosity ranging from small scale laboratory flumes $Q \approx 0.1 \text{ m}^3/\text{s}$ to European rivers $2000 \text{ m}^3/\text{s}$ and large scale world rivers $23000 \text{ m}^3/\text{s}$ a 10^7 range in discharge Sites from rivers in the UK France China New Zealand and Ecuador are considered Topics are introduced initially at a simplified level and get progressively more complex in later chapters This book is intended for post graduate level students and practising engineers or hydrologists engaged in flood risk management as well as those who may simply just wish to learn more about modelling flows in rivers

Suspects' Rights in India Prejal Shah, 2021-09-30 This book examines the procedural cultural and institutional framework of custodial interrogation in India It explores theoretical and practical perspectives on custodial interrogation practices in India which have been in urgent need for reform and critiques the systemic failure on the part of the police in India to implement suspects rights uniformly This volume Analyses the Indian framework of custodial interrogation to identify its fundamental flaws and emphasises on the need for having a lawyer present during custodial interrogation Demonstrates significant evidence on state of suspects rights in India through comparative law methodologies with a focus on common law scholarship and jurisprudence more particularly England and Wales and supplemented by vital empirical research through key interviews with related institutional parties Discusses emerging seminal jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights on applications of the right to fair trial at the custodial interrogation stage especially shedding light on modern applications of the right to legal assistance in England and Wales and radical Strasbourg inspired reforms in other European jurisdictions Highlights the right to legal assistance as one of the viable solutions to break the culture of police lawlessness at this critical stage of the criminal process An invigorating study this book is aimed at enriching data and hypothesis for academics policy makers civil society organizations and students working in the area of law and legal studies police and policing citizenship and political science

Comparative Policing from a Legal Perspective Monica den Boer, Public police forces are a regular phenomenon in most jurisdictions around the world yet their highly divergent legal context draws surprisingly little attention Bringing together a wide range of police experts from all around the world this book provides an overview of traditional and emerging fields of public policing New material and findings are presented with an international comparative perspective it is a must read for students of policing security and law and professionals in related fields
