Re: Medical Malpractice Claim of Sarahjeet Patel

Harry S. Cohen & Associates, representatives of the family of the late Mrs. Sarahjeet Patel, are writing you in an effort to resolve a medical malpractice claim without protracted litigation. This claim is against Carondelet St. Mary Hospital as well as the following medical staff members: Paul Schwartz, MD; Elisa Douglas, MD; and Charles Brink, MD.

On April 6th, 2016, Mrs. Patel was diagnosed by her PCP, Dr. Schwartz, with iron-deficiency anemia. Dr. Schwartz scheduled a colonoscopy for the following week to investigate the cause of the anemia. The colonoscopy was performed by gastroenterologist Dr. Brink on April 11th, 2016.

After the colonoscopy, two reports were generated with Mrs. Patel's name on them. The first report ("correct report") contained Mrs. Patel's medical condition, which was a 5-millimeter mid-transverse polyp that required a follow-up colonoscopy. The second report ("incorrect report") was based on another patient's medical condition; a bleeding mass in the cecum requiring the removal of half the colon.

Dr. Schwartz received both reports but chose not to question the discrepancy, and instead referred Mrs. Patel to surgeon Dr. Douglas for an unnecessary right hemicolectomy surgery. Dr. Douglas also received both colonoscopy reports but ignored the fact that they were vastly different, scheduling Mrs. Patel for surgery the following week, April 22nd, 2016. Furthermore, Dr. Brink was provided with both reports and apparently also failed to notice the variance between the two.
