The Brutal Truth About Asian Branding Joseph Baladi, 2011-02-16 This is one of the most thoughtful books on branding I ve come across Most such books are either quickly crafted how to books or academic tomes over burdened with references This book is thoughtful because it raises questions which deal with the why rather than just how of branding The reference to brutal truth as the truth which will set us free to examine ourselves without self illusions is liberating The notion that Asia has many good but no great brands is also not a put down but a clarion call for Asian CEOs to rise to the challenge and create lasting meaningful committed brands Ho Kwon Ping Chairman CEO Banyan Tree and Board of Trustees SMU 2010 recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award by the American Creativity Association A cold shower to wake people up Joe Baladi s Brand Blueprint is a great tool for anyone involved in Sovereign Relationship Marketing or brand building anywhere Timothy Love Vice Chairman Chief Executive Officer Omnicom APIMA There are many books about branding but few address Asian companies directly Joe Baladi has been one of the loudest voices to advocate strong branding practices to Asian companies determined to outperform their competitors The Brutal Truth About Asian Branding is a timely book that all Asian CEOs with global aspirations should read Richard Eu Group CEO Eu Yan Sang International The Brutal Truth About Asian Branding is the first book that connects branding frameworks to the realities of operating in Asia It offers a very straightforward perspective on the challenges Asian CEOs face as they build their businesses and their brands and perhaps the most compelling part of the book is the passionate plea for how Asian CEOs should be thinking different about branding In true Baladi style it is straight from the heart Maarten Kelder Managing Partner Asia Monitor Group A very interesting and valuable perspective on Asian branding one that decision makers in the region should read and embrace Well done Joe Ron Sim Founder it is thoughtful and thought provoking putting people and brands center stage with practical insights borne of his breadth of personal experience at the frontline Chris D Beaumont Professor Tokyo University Global Centre of Excellence Director North Asia Results International The brutal truth is that Joe Baladi is right Asian CEOs must learn the brand skills used so successfully in the rest of the world It will take a big change in mentality but the rewards will be vast This book is a great start to that revolution Michael Newman Author 22 Irrefutable Laws of Advertising Landscape and Branding Nicole Porter, 2015-10-05 Landscape and branding explores the way landscape is conceptualised conceived represented and designed by professionals in a brand driven age Landscape incorporating tangible physical space as well as intangible concepts narratives images and experiences of place is constructed by a number of creative industries This book tests the hypothesis that place branding a powerful marketing and management practice increasingly blurs the distinction between the promotion of landscape and its production in design terms Place branding involves the strategic and systematic composition of single minded experiential and market friendly place identities which are consistently communicated across various media including physical space How does this implicate or transform notions of place nature landscape experience and the qualitative value of landscape itself How does this affect the role of landscape architecture To answer these questions place branding theory and practice is critically examined alongside an in depth case study of one specific landscape the Blue Mountains Australia Projects undertaken between 1995 and 2015 including a branding strategy for the region media campaigns television cinema and several landscape architectural works in the public and private domain are comparatively analysed focusing on the discourse conventions and values informing their production and the landscape narratives they convey Nonprofit Management Chastity Weese, 2009 Book CD ROM According to the National Center for Charitable Statistics there are over 1 4 million registered non profit organisations in the United States alone While the areas of focus may differ one thing applies to each and every organisation The challenges of running a non profit are far reaching and unique This book teaches you the basics including how to create a plan fund a mission recruit and keep volunteers create and follow a budget perform SWOT analysis and more You will also learn about performance measurement tools taxes management theories accounting public and government relations insurance fundraising educational programs sponsorship programs legal requirements consultants lobbying and ethics Also included are strategies for working with the board of directors managing conflicts of interest hiring or firing and other management issues This book shows you how to overcome common obstacles such as founder s syndrome poor meeting attendance and rapid staff turnover You are also provided with real world examples and case studies that demonstrate both effective and ineffective management strategies The companion CD ROM contains worksheets checklists and tables to aid in your non profit management strategy
