Manual Celta 2003:

Manual de Sociologia Política João Carlos Graça, 2018-06-01 A abordagem proposta neste livro é marcadamente transdisciplinar. E sistemático o trespassar das tradições académicas da ciência política, da economia e da sociologia. O texto assenta na interpretação e na classificação de vasta matéria factual procedendo-se à discussão crítica de um certo número de categorias tais como estado nacional, imperialismo, totalitarismo, sistemas eleitorais e desenvolvimento político entre outras. O exame dos factos cruza-se entretanto com a história das ideias avocada primeiro de forma explícita depois preservada como pano de fundo analítico. Os juízos de valor inevitáveis são mantidos em cheque pela factualidade e em nome da lucidez são declarados quanto possível. The Education of Children and Young People in State Care Sonia Jackson, Ingrid Hojer, 2017-10-02 Young people who leave care with few or no educational qualifications are at very high risk of social exclusion in adulthood. Yet in the past their education has attracted little attention from researchers or professionals. Studies by the editors and contributors to this volume show that the educational standards attained by young people in care fall progressively behind those of their peers living with their own families. This research-based book looks at the educational experiences of children and youths in nine different European countries and Canada. It identifies the obstacles that prevent them from realising their aspirations and discusses ways of improving their opportunities. How can countries with different traditions, welfare regimes and administrative systems learn from each other? What needs to be done at national, local and individual levels to give children in care equal chances with those living with their families? At present a child in public care is five times less likely to go to university than others. How can teachers, social workers and carers better support their educational attainment and enable more of them to succeed and progress to tertiary education? This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of Social Work. Manual de Distribuição 3ª Ed. José António Rousseau, 2020-09-28. Não seguimento do sucesso obtido junto dos leitores há mais de 20 anos, o Manual de Distribuição de José António Rousseau surge agora nesta 3ª edição revista e atualizada com um olhar renovado sobre as temáticas da distribuição e do Consumo. Para além da evolução histórica da distribuição e do seu papel na cadeia de abastecimento da análise económica e dinâmica do ponto de venda das relações produto-res distribuidores e de uma visão profunda das empresas retalhistas, esta 3ª edição conta ainda com os casos de estudo da Goldratt e da Mercadona, com as histórias de vida dos visionários da distribuição e com uma parte nova dedicada aos modelos de negócio disruptivos que o autor designou por Cavaleiros do Apocalipse. Manual de lingüística española Emilio Ridruejo, 2019-06-04 This handbook provides a detailed overview of the current state of research in Spanish linguistics. Manual of Political Ethics, Designed Chiefly for the Use of Colleges and Students at Law Francis Lieber, 2003 Lieber Francis Manual of Political Ethics Designed Chiefly for the Use of Colleges and Students at Law Second Edition Revised Edited by Theodore D Woolsey Philadelphia J B Lippincott Company 1890 Two volumes Reprinted 2003 by The Lawbook Exchange Ltd LCCN 2002044392 ISBN 1 58477 345 6 Cloth 160 Reprint of second edition First published in 1838 and 1839 Lieber's Manual of Political Ethics a comprehensive theory of the state is one of his most significant and influential works It was one of the first treatises on political science and the first written in the United States Strongly influenced by German Idealism it argues that the state is the ultimate expression of humanity's ancient quest for moral ethical and spiritual fulfillment As much a work of advocacy as it is of theory it urges the reader to consider the moral obligations that arise from his participation in government and other civil institutions Lieber's influence as an educator will make the work of interest to scholars of legal education as well as students of law and government Theodore D Woolsey 1801 1889 a professor at Yale and later its president was one of the founding fathers of American political science First Report Indicators of Immigrant Integration Portugal Catarina Reis Oliveira, Edite Rosário, Tiago Santos, 2006-10-01 The European Commission aims at defining a shared outlook on immigration issues striving to ensure third country citizens rights and responsibilities similar to those of European Union citizens However each Member State enjoys the prerogative of defining its own integration policy The resulting diversity of integration policies is alongside the very plurality of inflows one of the factors that most affects the actual quality of the integration of immigrants in the EU But the situations in EU countries display similarities as well as differences This conjunction of similarities and differences may be regarded as an added value since it makes way for understanding which policies work better in which settings Thus by exchanging information on policy measures and good practices we improve our chance of obtaining better future global results in the whole of the EU In this light it can be plainly seen that finding comparable indicators between different countries is something that will not only contribute to a better monitoring of both the immigration and integration processes but also help improving the policies developed in these domains Since the current project does not belong to the scope of basic research but is instead an application of social science methods to a social problem with the purpose of aiding public policy it becomes particularly relevant to know which policy documents on a European level circumscribe the field of integration In the end of 2004 the European Council formulated the Common Basic Principles for the immigrant integration policies in the EU 1 This document states that Integration is a dynamic two way process of mutual accommodation by all immigrants and residents of Member States p 17 This is the definition of integration that will be adopted at this stage of the current work More recently this statement was repeated in the Common Agenda for Integration Framework for the Integration of Third Country Nationals in the European Union As to the notion of immigrant the references abound Some authors define immigrant as someone that enters a country where he or she does not reside with the intention of becoming a resident Garson et al 1999 21 Others give this concept a more economic facet defining immigrant as any foreigner that comes to Portugal looking for work or in order to fill a position that he has obtained before leaving his country of origin Cruz Almeida 2001 6 These discrepancies far from being individual idiosyncrasies are condensed in the normative production more or less official of the institutions that congregate these interests In Portugal the National Statistical Institute INE for instance acknowledges two types of immigrants the permanent and the temporary For statistical purposes a permanent immigrant is an individual that has entered the country with the intention of residing here for over a year having resided abroad for a uninterrupted period of over a year while a temporary immigrant has entered the country with the intention of remaining here for a year or less with the purpose of working on a paid position having resided abroad for a uninterrupted period of over a year The relatives and accompanying persons of such individuals are also to be considered temporary immigrants³ However the portrayal of the immigrant that arises from the Article 11 of the Convention no 143 of the International Labour Organization is quite different it is considered that for the purpose of this Part of this Convention the term migrant worker means a person who migrates or who has migrated from one country to another with a view to being employed otherwise than on his own account⁴ followed by a list of exceptions The semantic field of the word immigrant is located at the intersection of the influence spheres of diverse knowledges and powers This situation leads to the multiplication of the variables that are relevant for forming a concept of immigrant These encompass at least nationality place of birth economic purpose residence duration of stay legal status and professional situation A theoretical approach concerning the multiplicity that hides behind the concept would be appropriate for a structural analysis of the representations of immigrants but not as a basis for a quantitative analysis of its contribution towards making integration indicators work Due to the importance of standardizing concepts for measuring the integration of immigrants we have chosen the pragmatic and minimalist solution also in accordance with the subject of the funding line that feeds the current project of identifying immigrants with third country nationals although setting in context the legal framework that configures such immigrants in Portugal
