The European Outthrust and Encounter David B. Quinn,Cecil H. Clough,P. E. H. Hair,Paul Edward Hedley Hair,1994-01-01 For half a century David Beers Quinn wrote on the history of the early relationship between England and North America This volume was presented in tribute to his meticulous and authoritative but cautious scholarship on the occasion of his 85th birthday. It includes his Reflections on a lifetime of research and his bibliography. But his interests in the early period of the expansion of Europe have never been limited to England or North America and this volume accordingly takes as its theme the widest historical context of the subject and period: the whole European outthrust and encounter in its first phase. Ten contributions by recognized scholars provide select exemplars to serve as a stimulating introduction to this vast theme. Three overview essays deal with specific regions of the outthrust chosen because of differences in outcome: Ethiopia, the Far East, and Siberia. The remaining essays consider specific episodes in localities ranging from Guayana to China and their discursive echoes and are essentially concerned with a leading feature of David Quinn's scholarship: the discovery, examination, and interpretation of sources. A preliminary essay discusses the theme and links the various contributions within a framework of critical generalization.

A Companion to World History Douglas Northrop, 2014-12-15. A COMPANION TO WORLD HISTORY. This new volume offers insightful reflections by both leading and emerging world historians on approaches, methodologies, arguments, and pedagogies of a sub-discipline that has continued to be in flux as well as in need of defining itself as a relevant alternative to the traditional national, regional, or chronological fields of inquiry. Choice. The focus on the practicalities of how to do world history probably gives it its edge. Its thirty-three chapters are grouped into sections that address how to set up research projects in world history, how to teach it, how to get jobs in it, how to frame it, and how it is done in various parts of the globe. It is an actual handbook in other words, as opposed to a sample of exemplary work. English Historical Review. A Companion to World History offers a comprehensive overview of the variety of approaches and practices utilized in the field of world and global history. This state-of-the-art collection of more than 30 insightful essays, including contributions from an international cast of leading world historians and emerging scholars in the field, identifies continuing areas of contention, disagreement, and divergence while pointing out fruitful directions for further discussion and research. Themes and topics explored include the lineages and trajectories of world history, key ideas and methods employed by world historians, the teaching of world history, and how it draws upon and challenges traditional approaches and global approaches to writing world history. By considering these interwoven issues of scholarship and pedagogy from a transnational, interregional, and world/global scale, fresh insights are gained and new challenges posed. With its rich compendium of diverse viewpoints, A Companion to World History is an essential resource for the study of the world's past.

Agricultural and Pastoral Societies in Ancient and Classical History Michael Adas, 2001. Introduces readers to the cross-cultural study of ancient and classical civilizations. The book is divided into two sections: the first examining the ongoing interaction between ancient agrarian and nomadic societies and the second focusing on regional patterns in the dissemination of ideas.

Sources of Crossroads and Cultures, Volume II: Since 1300 Bonnie G. Smith, 2012. Christian Encounters with Iran Sasan Tavassoli, 2011-04-30. The interface between the current Shi'ite landscape and Christian thinking is of the greatest significance for the shifting political and religious dynamics of the Middle East Sasan Tavassoli here examines Iranian Shi'ite thinkers encounters with Christian thought since the Islamic revolution of 1979 and provides insight into the cultural and intellectual climate surrounding Christian Muslim dialogue in contemporary Iran The literature on Christianity in Iran reveals a wide range of approaches and attitudes and Tavassoli demonstrates that traditional polemics are giving way to a more descriptive and subjective understanding of Christian thought He also studies Muslim Christian dialogue and research conducted and supported by governmental as well as non governmental organizations and offers a close examination with interviews of the work of three prominent liberal religious intellectuals Abdol Karim Soroush Mostafa Malekian and Mojtaba Shabestari Placing contemporary Shi'ite thought in the broad historical context of pre and post revolution Iran Tavassoli relates concrete religious cultural and socio political realities to the themes and orientations in the latest phase of the Shi'ite Islam Christianity encounter and offers fresh insight into the dynamism of contemporary Islam and the religious complexities of the Muslim world
