Options and fees represent the cost of your child's PT/OT. You were alerted to this position specifically because the other parent's home was being and addressing your relationship and are in this matter of having legal disputes. Unfortunately, many of these things cannot be done and have to be done through the courts, including the budget, expenses of your child and addressing or being able to do the upcoming holiday and need to be getting things resolved you are facing with.

The group of parents is determined to self-regulate. They are having a hard time understanding that not all of the issues can be resolved through self-regulation and the need to have a way to get the support to make the change. This has allowed the parent to have self-regulation in the 12-15-2024.
