Practice Questions in Psychopharmacology Ann M. Mortimer, Srikanth Sajja, 2011 Topics Covered Include Development of Psychotropic Drugs Research Methodology for Drug Trials Pharmacokinetics Antidepressant Drugs Pharmacological

Treatment of Psychiatric Disorders Pharmacoeconomics and Many More Writing and the Body in Motion Cheryl Pallant, 2018-04-25 Based upon the author's lifetime practices as a dancer poet and teacher this innovative approach to developing body awareness focuses on achieving self discovery and well being through movement mindfulness and writing Written from a holistic rather than dualistic view of the mind body duality discussion and exercises draw on dance psychology neuroscience and meditation to guide personal exploration and creative expression Staple Security Jessica Barnes, 2022-08-08 Egyptians often say that bread is life most eat this staple multiple times a day many relying on the cheap bread subsidized by the government In Staple Security Jessica Barnes explores the process of sourcing domestic and foreign wheat for the production of bread and its consumption across urban and rural settings She traces the anxiety that pervades Egyptian society surrounding the possibility that the nation could run out of wheat or that people might not have enough good bread to eat and the daily efforts to ensure that this does not happen With rich ethnographic detail she takes us into the worlds of cultivating wheat trading grain and baking buying and eating bread Linking global flows of grain and a national bread subsidy program with everyday household practices Barnes theorizes the nexus between food and security drawing attention to staples and the lengths to which people go to secure their consistent availability and quality The Individual and the Welfare State Axel Börsch-Supan, Martina Brandt, Karsten Hank, Mathis Schröder, 2011-04-13 Our health our income and our social networks at older ages are the consequence of what has happened to us over the course of our lives The situation at age 50 reflects our own decisions as well as many environmental factors especially interventions by the welfare state This book explores the richness of 28 000 life histories in thirteen European countries collected as part of the Survey of Health Ageing and Retirement in Europe SHARE Combining these data with a comprehensive account of European welfare state interventions provides a unique opportunity to answer the important public policy questions of our time how the welfare state affects people's incomes housing families retirement volunteering and health The overarching theme of the welfare state creates a book of genuinely interdisciplinary analyses a valuable resource for economists gerontologists historians political scientists public health analysts and sociologists alike Injury Research Guohua Li, Susan P. Baker, 2012-01-07 Injury is recognized as a major public health issue worldwide In most countries injury is the leading cause of death and disability for children and young adults age 1 to 39 years Each year in the United States injury claims about 170 000 lives and results in over 30 million emergency room visits and 2.5 million hospitalizations Injury is medically defined as organ tissue damages inflicted upon oneself or by an external agent either accidentally or deliberately Injury encompasses the undesirable consequences of a wide array of events such as motor vehicle crashes poisoning burns falls and drowning medical error adverse effects of drugs suicide and homicide The past two decades have witnessed a remarkable growth in injury research both in scope and in depth To address the tremendous health burden of injury morbidity and mortality at the global level the World Health Organization in 2000 created the Department of Injury and Violence Prevention which has produced several influential reports on violence traffic injury and childhood injury The biennial World Conference on Injury Control and Safety Promotion attracts a large international audience and has been successfully convened nine times in different countries In the United States the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control became an independent program of the federal Centers for Disease Prevention and Control in 1997 Since then each state health department has created an office in charge of injury prevention activities and over a dozen universities have established injury control research centers This volume will fill an important gap in the scientific literature by providing a comprehensive and up to date reference resource to researchers practitioners and students working on different aspects of the injury problem and in different practice settings and academic fields
