Gender in an Era of Post-truth Populism Penny Jane Burke, Julia Coffey, Rosalind Gill, Akane Kanai, 2022-03-24 What does it mean to be pedagogical in a post truth landscape How might feminist thought and action work to intervene in this environment Gender in an Era of Post truth Populism draws together leading feminist scholars of gender and education to explore the current significance of the rise of populist policies and discourses and the challenges it poses to the hard won battles regarding the rights of women immigrants and minorities Offering the first detailed feminist intervention in this space the collection explores the significance of populism for feminist pedagogies and practices in relation to gender and education This exploration has significance for broader and urgent questions of our times regarding knowledge authority truth power and harm and considers the potential for feminist interventions in relation to pedagogies and activism to speak back and disrupt populist agendas

Feminist Theories of Crime Merry Morash, 2017-07-05 This collection re imagines the field of criminology with insights gleaned from feminist theory Works included here illustrate that gender is a key organizing principle of social life This means that men and women have gender that patriarchy as well as gender must be theorized and that other systems of oppression such as race and class must also be studied to fully understand the crime problem and the criminal justice system Finally the articles collected here exemplify the feminist concern for thinking consciously about how and why we do our research with the crucial goal of producing knowledge that will promote social justice

N. Nguyen, 2014-08-27 Since Vietnam introduced economic reforms in the mid 1980s domestic service has become an established sector of the labour market and domestic workers have become indispensable to urban life in the rapidly changing country This book analyzes the ways in which the practices and discourses of domestic service serve to forge and contest emerging class identities in post reform Vietnam Drawing on a rich and diverse range of qualitative data including ethnographies interviews and narratives it shows that such practices and discourses are rooted in cultural notions of gender and rural urban difference and enduring socialist structures of feeling which in turn clash with the realities of growing differentiation Domestic workers experiences reveal negotiations with class boundaries actively set by the urban middle class who seek distinction through emerging notions and practices of domesticity These boundaries are nevertheless riddled with gender and class anxiety on the side of the latter partly because of the very struggles and contestations of the domestic workers More broadly Minh T N Nguyen links the often invisible intimate dynamics of class formation in the domestic sphere with wider political economic processes in a post socialist country embarking on marketization while retaining the political control of a party state As a pioneering ethnographic study of domestic service in Vietnam today this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asian culture society social anthropology gender studies human geography and development studies
