Hirvela,Diane Belcher,2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers Teaching to Change the World Jeannie Oakes, Martin Lipton, Lauren Anderson, Jamy Stillman, 2018-01-29

Teaching to Change the World is an up to the moment engaging social justice oriented introduction to education and teaching and the challenges and opportunities they present Both foundational and practical the chapters are organized around conventional topics but in a way that consistently integrates a coherent story that explains why schools are as they are Taking the position that a hopeful democratic future depends on ensuring that all students learn the text pays particular attention to inequalities associated with race social class language gender and other social categories and explores teachers role in addressing them This thoroughly revised fifth edition remains a vital introduction to the profession for a new generation of teachers who seek to become purposeful knowledgeable practitioners in our ever changing educational landscape for those teachers who see the potential for education to change the world Features and Updates of the New Edition Fully updated Chapter 1 The U S Schooling Dilemma reflects our current state of education after the 2016 U S presidential election First person observations from teachers including first year teachers continue to offer vivid authentic pictures of what teaching to change the world means and involves Additional coverage of the ongoing effects of Common Core highlights the heated public discourse around teaching and teachers and charter schools Attention to diversity and inclusion is treated as integral to all chapters woven throughout rather than tacked on as separate units Digging Deeper resources on the new companion website include concrete resources that current and future teachers can use in their classrooms Tools for Critique provides instructors and students questions prompts and activities aimed at encouraging classroom discussion and particularly engaging those students least familiar with the central tenets of social justice education

A Pledge with Purpose Gregory S. Parks, Matthew W. Hughey, 2024-02-06 Reveals the historical and political significance of The Divine Nine the Black Greek Letter Organizations In 1905 Henry Arthur Callis began his studies at Cornell University Despite their academic pedigrees Callis and his fellow African American students were ostracized by the majority white student body and so in 1906 Callis and some of his peers started the first intercollegiate Black Greek Letter Organization BGLO Alpha Phi Alpha Since their founding BGLOs have not only served to solidify bonds among many African American college students they have also imbued them with a sense of purpose and a commitment to racial uplift the endeavor to help Black Americans reach socio economic equality A Pledge with Purpose explores the arc of these unique important and relevant social institutions Gregory S Parks and Matthew W Hughey uncover how BGLOs were shaped by and labored to transform the changing social political and cultural landscape of Black America from the era of the Harlem Renaissance to the civil rights movement Alpha Phi Alpha boasts such members as Thurgood Marshall civil rights lawyer and US Supreme Court Justice and Dr Charles Wesley noted historian and college president Delta Sigma Theta members include Bethune Cookman College founder Mary McLeod Bethune and women s rights activist Dorothy Height Huey P Newton co founder of the Black Panther Party who left an indelible mark on the civil rights movement was a member of Phi Beta Sigma while Dr Mae Jemison a celebrated engineer and astronaut belonged to Alpha Kappa Alpha Through such individuals Parks and Hughey demonstrate the ways that BGLO members have long been at the forefront of innovation activism and scholarship In its examination of the history of these important organizations A Pledge with Purpose serves as a critical reflection of both the collective African American racial struggle and the various strategies of Black Americans in their great and unfinished march toward freedom and equality

A History of the Humanities in the Modern University Sverre Raffnsøe,2024-03-27 This book challenges commonplace assertions that the humanities are presently undergoing a severe crisis as a result of a longstanding decline Rather than hearkening to the widespread reactive call for a last ditch defense of the humanities under attack from an ungracious world this book fundamentally reverses the perspective and makes a plea for a different affirmative approach It contends that the humanities have incessantly arrived at critical turning points since they were first constituted in a form that remains recognizable today and assumed a leading role in knowledge organization with the establishment of the modern university around 1800 Assuming a historical perspective the monograph takes the human sciences back to their rightful place in the family tree of sciences and gives due recognition to their continuously decisive role in the production of new knowledge and the creation of new fields of knowledge Situating the ongoing gemmation of the humanities in a broader context this monograph also offers an encompassing introduction to the over all development of knowledge in the last two hundred years

Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano,2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials

Extravagance and Misery Alan Thomas, Professor Department of Philosophy Alan Thomas, Alfred Archer, Associate Professor Tilburg Center for Moral Philosophy Epistemology and Philosophy of Science (Tilps) Alfred Archer, Associate Professor Tilburg Center for Moral Philosophy Epistemology and Philosophy of Science (Tilps) Bart Engelen, Bart Engelen, 2024-11-05 Extravagance and Misery discusses the economic inequalities that characterize capitalist societies What causes these inequalities Why are they unfair Do they make us unhappy and if so why Which stories do we tell each other about those inequalities and why do these stories help perpetuate them What role do emotions such as shame amongst the poor and envy and admiration for the rich play The authors draw on insights from philosophers economists psychologists and other scientists to explain the structural mechanisms underlying inequality and the impact it has on our well being and happiness The result is an explanation of the emotional regime that characterizes our capitalist societies and that perpetuates the unfair gap between the extravagance of the rich and the misery of the poor Finally Extravagance and Misery proposes how to re shape this emotional regime in the interests of justice and solidarity

A Burdensome Experiment
Christien Philmarc Tompkins, 2024 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina the

New Orleans public school board fired nearly 7 500 teachers and employees In the decade that followed the city created the first urban public school system in the United States to be entirely contracted out to private management Veteran educators collectively referred to as the backbone of the city s Black middle class were replaced by younger less experienced white teachers who lacked historical ties to the city In A Burdensome Experiment Christien Philmarc Tompkins argues that the privatization of New Orleans schools has made educators into a new kind of racialized worker As school districts across the nation backslide on school integration Tompkins asks who exactly deserves to teach our children The struggle over this question exposes the inherent antiblackness of charter school systems and the unequal burdens of school choice

Cartografía de la buena docencia universitaria Javier Paricio, Amparo Fernández, Idoia Fernández, 2019-07-14 Este libro es la propuesta de un Marco de Desarrollo Académico Docente MDAD elaborado por iniciativa e impulso de la Red Estatal de Docencia Universitaria REDU En esencia lo que se propone es responder a la cuestión de qué significa buena docencia en educación superior a partir de la revisión de la investigación disponible El propósito es ofrecer un mapa y como cualquier mapa debe servir para saber dónde estamos hacia dónde queremos ir y por dónde avanzar en la formación del profesorado en las políticas institucionales de calidad o en nuestra propia evolución personal como profesionales de la docencia Lo primero que el lector descubrir en este mapa es que los numerosos factores implicados en la calidad del aprendizaje y la enseñanza constituyen un sistema intrincado delicado y complejo Progresar en este territorio es un desafío apasionante que dura toda una vida como en cualquier otro ámbito profesional de alto nivel Es necesario identificar retos planificar recorridos tomar decisiones
