Teaching Languages with Screen Media Carmen Herrero,Marta F. Suarez,2023-06-29 In recent years the expansion of screen media including film TV music videos and computer games has inspired new tools for both educators and learners This book illustrates how screen media can be exploited to support foreign language L2 teaching and learning Drawing on a range of theories and approaches from second language acquisition audio visual translation multimodality and new media and film studies this book provides both best practices and in depth research on this interdisciplinary field Areas of screen media enhanced learning and teaching are covered across 4 sections film and broadcast media in depth case studies translation and screen media and interactive media With a focus on pedagogical approaches to teaching and learning Spanish French German and English as a Foreign Language Teaching Languages with Screen Media presents innovative insights in this new interdisciplinary field 2012 GCSE English results Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee,2013-06-11 The 2012 GCSE English results prompted significant controversy which ultimately resulted in an application for judicial review This report sets out the background to these events and identifies lessons to be learned The problems with GCSE English can be traced back to the 2007 09 development phase of the qualification in particular the turbulence which resulted from the shift away from a mostly linear to a modular system combined with a high proportion of controlled assessment and generous marking tolerances Exam board experts raised concerns at the time but these were not acted upon by the regulator the then interim Ofqual Further difficulties arose because of pressures from the school accountability system The problems experienced with GCSE English in 2012 highlighted serious weaknesses in the moderation of speaking and listening with consequences for grade awarding The current status of Ofqual as an independent regulator accountable to Parliament is the right one However the Coalition Government is bringing in wholesale changes to GCSEs and A levels to a tight timetable and at the same time Ofqual must have systems in place The Committee is also concerned that there is a rush towards separate exam systems for England Wales and Northern Ireland without careful reflection on what might be lost or consensus that this is the right thing to do
