Language Learning and the Mother Tongue Sara Greaves, Monique De Mattia-Viviès, 2022-06-30 Innovative and interdisciplinary in approach this book explores the role of the mother tongue in second language learning It brings together contributions from a diverse team of authors to showcase a range of Francophone perspectives from the fields of linguistics psychology cross cultural psychiatry psychoanalysis translation studies literature creative writing the neurosciences and more The book introduces a major new concept the M other tongue and shows its relevance to language learning and pediatrics in a multicultural society The first chapter explores this concept from different angles and the subsequent chapters present a range of theoretical and practical perspectives including counselling case studies literary examples and creative plurilingual pedagogies to highlight how this theory can inform practical approaches to language learning Engaging and accessible readers will find new ideas and methods to adopt to their own thinking and practices whether their background is in language and linguistics psychiatry psychology or neuroscience

Translation and the Global City Judith Weisz Woodsworth, 2021-09-26 Translation and the Global City showcases fresh perspectives on translation in a global context drawing on case studies from Montreal and other multilingual cosmopolitan cities to examine the historical sociological and cultural factors underpinning the travel of languages ideas and cultures across borders Building on the spatial turn in translation studies the book adopts a bridge metaphor to explore the complexities of translational spaces and the ways in which translation acts can both unite and divide in the global city The collection initiates the discussion with a focus on the Canadian context and specifically the city of Montreal where historical circumstances public policy and shifting language politics have led to a burgeoning translation industry It goes on to address issues of translation in other regions and cities of the world generating new insights and opening avenues for further research into the relations between languages and cultures This volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in translation studies especially those with an interest in translation theory and the sociology of translation

We Remember with Reverence and Love Hasia R Diner, 2009-04-01 Winner of the 2009 National Jewish Book Award in American Jewish Studies Recipient of the 2010 Guggenheim Fellowship in Humanities Intellectual Cultural History It has become an accepted truth after World War II American Jews chose to be silent about the mass murder of millions of their European brothers and sisters at the hands of the Nazis In this compelling work Hasia R Diner shows the assumption of silence to be categorically false Uncovering a rich and incredibly varied trove of remembrances in song literature liturgy public display political activism and hundreds of other forms We Remember with Reverence and Love shows that publicly memorializing those who died in the Holocaust arose from a deep and powerful element of Jewish life in postwar America Not only does she marshal enough evidence to dismantle the idea of American Jewish forgetfulness she brings to life the moving and manifold ways that this widely diverse group paid tribute to the tragedy Diner also offers a compelling new perspective on the 1960s and its potent legacy by revealing how our typical understanding of the postwar years emerged from the cauldron of cultural divisions and campus battles a generation later The student activists and new Jews of the 1960s who in rebelling against the American Jewish world they had grown up in a world of remarkable affluence and broadening cultural possibilities created a flawed portrait of what their parents had or rather had not done in the postwar years This distorted legacy has been transformed by two generations of scholars writers rabbis and Jewish community leaders into a taken for granted truth

Shifting Ethnic Boundaries and Inequality in Israel Aziza Khazzoom, 2008-03-07 Why do racial and ethnic groups discriminate against each other The most common sociological answer is that they want to monopolize scarce resources good jobs or top educations for themselves This book offers a different answer showing that racial and ethnic discrimination can also occur to preserve particular group identities Shifting Ethnic Boundaries and Inequality in Israel focuses on the early period of Israeli statehood to examine how the European Jewish founders treated Middle Eastern Jewish immigrants The author argues that shaped by their own unique encounter with European colonialism the European Jews were intent on producing Israel as part of the West To this end they excluded and discriminated against those Middle Eastern Jews who threatened the goal of Westernization Blending quantitative and qualitative evidence Aziza Khazzoom provides a compelling rationale for the emergence of ethnic identity and group discrimination while also suggesting new ways to understand Israeli Palestinian relations

Reconstructing a National Identity Marsha L. Rozenblit, 2004 This book explores the impact of war and political crisis on the national identity of Jews both in the multinational Habsburg monarchy and in the new nation states that replaced it at the end of World War I Jews enthusiastically supported the Austrian war effort because it allowed them to assert their Austrian loyalties and Jewish solidarity at the same time They faced a grave crisis of identity when the multinational state collapsed and they lived in nation states mostly uncomfortable with ethnic minorities This book raises important questions about Jewish identity and about the nature of ethnic and national identity in general

The Languages of Israel Bernard Spolsky, Elana Goldberg Shohamy, 1999 The practice and ideology of the treatment of the languages of Israel are examined in this book It asks about the extent to which the present linguistic pattern may be attributed to explicit language planning activities

Canada's Jews Louis Rosenberg, 1993 Louis Rosenberg's Canada's Jews is a pioneering study of the demographic sociological cultural and economic dimensions of Canadian Jewish life in the 1930s It provides a comprehensive portrait of a community struggling with the insecurities of recent

Storytelling as Narrative Practice, 2019-07-08 Telling stories is one of the fundamental things we do as humans Yet in scholarship stories considered to be traditional such as myths folk tales and epics have often been analyzed separately from the narratives of personal experience that we all tell on a daily basis In Storytelling as Narrative Practice editors Elizabeth Falconi and Kathryn Graber argue that storytelling is best understood by erasing this analytic divide Chapter authors carefully examine language use in situ drawing on in depth knowledge gained from long term fieldwork to present rich and nuanced analyses of storytelling as narrative practice across a diverse range of global contexts Each chapter takes a holistic ethnographic approach to show the practices processes and social consequences of telling stories

Voices of the Diaspora Thomas Nolden, Frances Malino, 2005-10-21 Voices of the Diaspora offers for the first time representative works by major Jewish women writers from Austria England France Germany Italy the Netherlands Spain and Russia These stories and essays written over the last twenty five years

speaking to the challenges confronting the post Shoah generations of Jews living in Europe a need to commemorate the lives extinguished in the camps a desire to repair a ruptured culture and a determination to reclaim a Jewish identity resistant to assimilation and the threats of anti-Semitism At the same time these writers address themes specific to their national contexts Berlin born Barbara Honigmann questions the possibility of Jewish life in the country responsible for the final solution Maghreb born Marlène Amar and Reina Roff address the experiences of displacement and emancipation as Sephardic women in Western post colonial societies Clara Sereni describes how Jews in post Fascist Italy reemerged with a self assertiveness that troubled a society that had found comfort in amnesia Ludmila Ulitskaya portrays a Jewish girlhood on the eve of Stalin's death empowered by the religious traditions of Jewish resistance From the unique perspective of women's literary voices this volume reveals to English speaking readers the extraordinary vivacity and diversity of European Jewry and introduces them to a new generation of women writers Language in Time of Revolution Benjamin

Harshav, 2023-04-28 This book deals with two remarkable events the worldwide transformations of the Jews in the modern age and the revival of the ancient Hebrew language It is a book about social and cultural history addressed not only to the professional historian and a book about Jews addressed not only to Jewish readers It tries to rethink a wide field of cultural phenomena and present the main ideas to the intelligent reader or better present a family picture of related and contiguous ideas Many names and details are mentioned which may not all be familiar to the uninitiated their function is to provide some concrete texture for this dramatic story but the focus is on the story itself This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1993 This book deals with two remarkable events the worldwide transformations of the Jews in the modern age and the revival of the ancient Hebrew language It is a book about social and cultural history addressed not only to the professional historian and a

Jewish Language Review, 1985 The Telling: One Family, Two Centuries Daniel Tabor, 2024-10-18 The Telling is a story of European Jewish identity set against the backdrop of the chronicles of one family going back through history as far as Napoleonic times Author Daniel Tabor tracks the experiences and changing perceptions of his family as they find themselves having to move locations often needing to flee oppression but also to take up new opportunities The approach to the writing is based on the time honoured Jewish tradition of older family members passing on their life stories and insights to younger ones as one way of keeping the family culture alive The book looks back at those who lived many years ago during the nineteenth century in the days when the family was establishing itself in Europe particularly in the Russian Pale and in Germany These stories are combined with those of his more recent relatives who travelled in Europe but also as far away as Israel and Australia to find safe havens from oppression or to make better lives for themselves How all these changes affected their perceptions of their identity is a central theme running through the book as are the influence of the places they lived in and how they remembered their life stories The book focuses heavily on the author's parents David and Hanna and their individual families But Daniel Tabor brings in the life stories of other relatives on both sides of his family too Overall the author has brought together the stories of twenty members of his family While there are tales of sadness there are also many tales of joy as the family members set about making the most of their lives dealing with numerous challenges thrown in their path displaying perseverance resilience courage and determination along the way The book is written in an engaging anecdotal style and includes many evocative family testimonies and photos providing a vivid picture of life in times gone by The Telling will appeal to those interested in Jewish history in general Jewish family histories the Holocaust the formation and development of the modern state of Israel the topic of people migration and also those interested in how others have overcome significant adversity to make a better life for themselves

Korle Meets the Sea Mary Esther Kropp Dakubu, 1997 Ghana has played a key role in African Western relations since medieval times For this reason and others Ghana has evolved into a linguistic quilt that contains forty four indigenous languages and several exotic ones of which most Ghanians speak at least two Using Accra Ghana's capital as a microcosm Dakubu conducts a linguistic historical and ethnographic investigation of the origins and durability of this multilingualism and how it has effected Ghanaian society

Goodbye Beaver Lake Irwin Wolfe, 2001-10 Separatist madness engulfs Quebec in this saga of a society torn asunder by French Canadian nationalists hellbent on Quebec's secession from Canada It might be described as a historical political metaphor a cautionary tale recounting some of the momentous events which have occurred in the Province of Quebec between the late 50s and present day The story also dips back into the 30s and 40s
