Department of Public Service & Administration.2016 Handbook of Research on Implications of Sustainable Development in Higher Education Meletiadou, Eleni, 2023-02-10 Research in the field of education for sustainable development ESD is of growing concern to meet the needs of the diverse student populations in various higher education institutions People around the world recognize that current economic development trends are not sustainable and that public awareness education and training are key to moving society toward sustainability Although ESD continues to grow both in content and pedagogy and its visibility and respect have grown in parallel education officials policymakers educators curriculum developers and others are called upon to rethink education in order to contribute to the achievement of the goals of sustainable development in higher education The Handbook of Research on Implications of Sustainable Development in Higher Education provides insight regarding the implications of ESD for teaching learning and assessment in higher education and demonstrates the value of adopting an ESD lens by broadening and strengthening the evidence base of the impact that this can make for students educators and society as a whole Covering key topics such as assessment globalization and inclusion this reference work is ideal for university leaders administrators policymakers researchers scholars practitioners academicians instructors and students

Youth In South Africa Ariane De Lannoy, Malose Langa, 2021-05-05 South Africa is characterised by a youthful population and the challenges and possibilities that characterise the young generation are both warning signs and beacons of hope for a nation founded on social justice Youth in South Africa Agency in visibility and national development takes stock of the nation s development as it affects young people Authors offer both personal and professional insights into the ways in which the youth navigate their own pathways to adulthood These include formal and informal engagements with politics as well as protest un employment entrepreneurship education religion experiences with sexuality and violence and a multitude of other life experiences Contributors paint a picture of the initiative agency and resilience of the youth as well as the challenges before them Authors also identify the state of waithood faced by those unable to make the transition out of youth into full adulthood as a result of their socio economic circumstances and political context By engaging these experiences and insights and primarily informed by the inputs of young people the authors highlight the limitations of existing youth policies and frameworks The case is made for policy instruments to be informed by the lived experiences of the youth as they navigate a complex macrosocial environment and by the messages the youth communicate about the limitations of current Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years Construction Workforce Management in the Fourth Industrial Revolution Era Lerato Aghimien, Clinton Ohis Aigbavboa, Douglas Aghimien, 2024-02-12 Through a critical review of existing related theories and models the authors address gaps in existing workforce management studies and propose a conceptual model to improve the management of workers in the construction industry ICMLG 2018 6th International Conference on Management Leadership and Governance Dr Vincent Ribiere, 2018-05-24 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 6th International Conference on Management Leadership and Governance ICMLG 2018 which is being hosted this year by the Institute for Knowledge and Innovation Southeast Asia IKI SEA a Centre of Excellence of at Bangkok University Thailand on 24 25 May 2018 The Skills Balancing Act in Sub-Saharan Africa Omar Arias, David K. Evans, Indhira Santos, 2019-01-31 Despite strong recent economic growth Sub Saharan Africa has levels of economic transformation poverty reduction and skill development far below those of other regions Smart investments in developing skills aligned with the policy goals of productivity growth inclusion and adaptability can help to accelerate the region s economic transformation in the 21st century Sub Saharan Africa s growing working age population presents a major opportunity to increase shared prosperity Countries in the region have invested heavily in building skills public expenditure on education increased sevenfold over the past 30 years and more childrenare in school today than ever before Yet systems for building skills in this population havefallen short and these shortcomings significantly impede economic prospects In half of thecountries fewer than two in every three children complete primary school even fewer reachand complete higher levels of education Learning outcomes have been persistently poor leading to substantial gaps in basic cognitive skills literacy and numeracy among children young people and adults The literacy rate of the adult population is below 50 percent in manycountries functional literacy and numeracy rates are even lower Systemwide change is required to achieve significant progress Multiple agencies at thecentral and local levels are involved in skills development strategies making skills everyone sproblem but no one s responsibility Policies and reforms need to build capacity for evidence based policies and create incentives to align the behaviors of all stakeholders with the pursuitof national skills development goals The Skills Balancing Act in Sub Saharan Africa Investing in Skills for Productivity Inclusivity and Adaptability lays out evidence to inform the policy choices that countries will make in skillinvestments Each chapter addresses a set of specific questions drawing on original analysis and synthesis of existing studies to explore key areas How the skills appropriate to each stage of the life cycle are acquired and whatmarket and institutional failures affect skills formation What systems are needed for individuals to access these skills including family investments private sector institutions schools and other public programs How those systems can be strengthened How the most vulnerable individuals those who fall outside the standard systems and have missed critical building blocks in skills acquisition can be supported Countries will face trade offs often stark ones that will have distributional impacts and a bearing on their development path Committed leaders reform coalitions and well coordinated policies are essential for taking on the skills balancing act in Sub Better Choices Greg Mills, Mcebisi Jonas, Haroon Bhorat, Ray Hartley, 2022-04-01 A must read accessible Saharan Africa and skilful account of South Africa's socio economic challenges policy and governance choices THEMBA MASEKO All the numbers on South Africa's crisis dashboard are blinking red. The economy is failing to grow and more and more young people find themselves on the outside looking in as education falters and jobs disappear Energy and transport are in crisis Governance is floundering as debt mounts and government runs out of money Better Choices is a collection by South Africa s top thinkers on the political economy providing an unflinching account of the myriad challenges the country faces The picture that emerges is of a nation on the brink of a catastrophic slide into failure unless better if tough policy choices are made As stark as these problems are their solutions are tantalisingly close at hand The chapters in this book outline exactly the solutions those better choices that need to be made by leadership to alter the country's bleak trajectory South Africa cannot talk its way out of trouble Key to success is removing the sources of friction the red tape over regulation and rents that slow down investment This is only possible if a more effective focused government acts decisively Compiled by The Brenthurst Foundation Africa s leading think tank on economic development Better Choices is for those who want to build a positive inclusive future for South Africa Global Perspectives on Work-Based Learning Initiatives Talbot, Jon, 2018-10-05 The purpose of education has been debated in recent years especially surrounding its curriculum and structure In order to fully understand this discussion the relationship between education and the labor market must be explored Global

Department of Education, 2017 Management in TVET Colleges Kraak, Andre, Paterson, Andrew, 2016-07-25 The Technical and Vocational Education and Training TVET college environment is marked by increasingly stark juxtapositions between what needs to be achieved in the post school education sector and the increasing difficulty of current conditions. The triple challenge of poverty inequality and unemployment weighs heavily on the social political and economic fabric of the country and expectations are high that the TVET colleges can make a pivotal contribution to counter these challenges Despite laudable increases in TVET enrolment the education system needs to work harder to accommodate the weight of demand for post school further education and training FET band qualifications from young people not in education employment or training At the same time it is vital to secure adequate quality in TVET programmes which depend so much on the competence and commitment of college lecturers This collection offers a set of research papers that provide new analytic and empirical material on The political economy of TVET types in different countries which by comparison illuminate the South African case A periodisation of government interventions in the TVET sector over the last three decades The unsettled state and status of TVET lecturers in relation to their job requirements and conditions of service The halting evolution of collegial relationships between college lecturers towards higher collegiality Employer expectations of college graduates and how colleges are responding and An analysis of the outcomes of a college improvement intervention in Limpopo and the Eastern Cape This book will offer valuable information and insights for decision makers as well as analysts of institutional change concerning links between education and economic growth with particular regard to TVET graduates employment rates
