Educating Children with AD/HD Paul Cooper, 2001. Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (AD/HD) is the most common behavioural disorder affecting up to five per cent of children in the UK. This book provides a concise and comprehensive guide to educating children with AD/HD, offering a theoretical introduction to the disorder and practical guidance for the classroom teacher on how to support children with this condition. This practical guide is divided into three clear sections which focus on the nature of AD/HD and its impact on the individual in school, as well as the ways in which it can be most accurately diagnosed.

The Life of A.D. Brown John T. M. Johnston, 2000-12. A fascinating and inspirational biography of Alanson D. Brown, who through years of struggle and perseverance and a few lucky breaks made St. Louis the center for shoe manufacturing in the U.S. in the previous century. Not only does this book have value as an inspirational business guideline, but it also shines as local Saint Louis history and encompasses an interesting portion of Western Americana as well.

Handbook of Research on New Media Applications in Public Relations and Advertising Esiyok, Elif, 2020-08-07

As competition between companies increases, the need for effective public relations and advertising campaigns becomes imperative to the success of the business. However, with the introduction of new media, the nature of these campaigns has changed. Today's consumers have more awareness and diversified ways to obtain knowledge, and through new media, they can provide feedback. An understanding of how to utilize new media to promote and sustain the reputation of an organization is vital for its continued success. The Handbook of Research on New Media Applications in Public Relations and Advertising is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on the application of new media tools for running successful public relations and advertising campaigns. While highlighting topics such as digital advertising, online behavior, and social networking, this book is ideally designed for public relations officers, advertisers, marketers, brand managers, communication directors, social media managers, IT consultants, researchers, academicians, students, and industry practitioners.

Advertising and Consumption Everardo Rocha, 2021-11-22. This book argues for the study of consumption and its relationship with media images, particularly advertising, from a cultural perspective. Focused on Brazil, it draws on decades of research by the author and engages with theory and concepts from a range of classic anthropological works The chapters examine how advertising professionals view their craft the resistance to capitalism amongst native Brazilians images of women and their bodies in magazines and the case of the first soccer player to become a national media celebrity Rocha supports the study of consumption as a classification system that materializes culture and creates relations between people and goods The book presents advertising as a mode of magical thinking that mediates the passage from the machine driven sphere of production to the humanized sphere of consumption converting meaningless impersonal things into goods that have name origin identity and purpose It will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists and others working on advertising marketing communications and consumer research The Critchfield
