The Fourth Heritage Emmanuel Sunlight Kirunda, 2011-03-11 This is a must read for anyone interested in learning about the African tribal mind and its interpretation of the world as dominated by Eurocentric ideals In a brutally honest and yet reflective writing Mr Kirunda offers his critique with a uniquely African perspective Written in the author's third language English this book attempts to use simple yet powerful reasoning to advocate a paradigm shift in the way Ugandans look at their Tribal Religious and European Colonial heritages In an analytical and creative style rare to many African writings Mr Kirunda vividly describes his tribal life and the impact his parents had on his worldview He then offers an unusually cold and intimate analysis of the cultural confusion within the Uganda society his personal hypothesis of why the Americans Germans and Japanese are economically and intellectually developed the two hindrances to development in

Uganda and his personal creative proposal of The Fourth Heritage as a way to integrate the triple heritages and also solve the two hindrances Lastly he generalizes his thesis to accommodate Kantian moral philosophies and offers a thrilling discussion of the scientific account of humanity's origin in East Africa and what that means for our human heritage Crow Mountain Lucy Inglis,2016-05-31 A sweeping tale of love legacy and wilderness set between the present day and 1867 in the dramatic landscape of modern day and territorial Montana While on a trip to Montana with her mom British teen Hope meets local boy Cal Crow a ranch hand Caught in a freak accident Hope and Cal take shelter in a cabin where Hope makes a strange discovery in an abandoned diary More than a hundred years earlier another British girl Emily met a similar fate Her rescuer a horse trader named Nate In this rugged place both girls learn what it means to survive and to fall in love neither knowing that their fates are intimately entwined The Red Planet Bill Hatcher,2024-04-16 We humans have an extraordinary capacity for compassion much of it in response to the atrocities we inflict on the planet its animals and each other The popular explanation for this paradox is that we evolved as carnivorous killer apes who gradually curbed our lust for violence with frequent exceptions by implementing humane social norms This explanation is so well worn especially in the American psyche that it epitomizes cliché So we could be forgiven for believing it when nearly every word is fiction Current research shows that our original biological and social programming is nonviolent So what changed What turned us from goddess worshipping plant eating peacemakers into god worshipping animal eating warmongers Find out in this fresh avant garde nonfiction The Red Planet Gendered Landscapes and Violent Inequalities and learn how our intrinsically feminine predilection for peace may yet save us
