

Media Flight Plan Exercises Answers

Major note: our focus throughout today, unlike Striptease, goes to the heart of corporate and institutional life and the individual's struggle for control against what we call the corporate hierarchy. The conventional view, that the firm's board, executive committee, or other group is the locus of power is false. Power is held by individuals, not by the firm.

All other studies suggest group exercise increases, at least slightly, the number of days per week people exercise. They also suggest that people who exercise with others are more likely to stick with it. But it's hard to know exactly how much more people who exercise with others are likely to stick with it.
