The Spirit of Leadership Reuel Khoza, 2024-05-21 In 2023 Reuel Khoza unsealed a letter to the future which he had written in 1999 when he was chair of Eskom at the time recognised as the best power utility in the world It was an optimistic letter expressing hopes that have since been dashed by corruption and maladministration by a failure of ethical leadership Khoza has written about leadership before considering the importance of intelligence emotional intelligence and social awareness Now he broadens his focus to explore the role of spirituality a faith quotient in transformational leadership The Spirit of Leadership is about faith in humanity and above all faith in God It is about being an African and a Christian and a strong believer in the virtues of ubuntu Africa's philosophy of humanness It is about ancestral wisdom and modern leadership It is about progress through ethical behaviour and good governance in business Finally it is about innovations of the spirit that are needed to save South Africa and indeed the world from a spiral of despair This is a vital and timely book for a country that needs to rediscover its moral compass

Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger, Thera Rasing, 2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes

Education and Leadership, 2008-01-01 This truly international book brings together authors from different regions of the world including North America South Africa Europe Iran and Russia all of whom are concerned with aspects of the challenges involved in the expansion of higher education both in student numbers and areas of study Some are concerned about the loss of guiding principles which steered university education for centuries The traditional purposes of higher education have come under such pressure that we have achieved conflicting models of the university Claes and ambiguity in regard to teaching and research Simons et al For others the problems are at a different stage Contributions from South Africa look at three challenges Can we provide enough places in higher education How do we deal with institutional mergers How do we make staff development effective in a situation in which English is the first language of less than five percent of the staff Young scholars in Russian regions face formidable hurdles in achieving academic careers while the best law graduates in Canada are faced with the ethical dilemma of personal career advancement or social justice Topsakal The problem of integrating nursing into a traditional Irish university is reviewed by Grant while the role of a university in regional development is addressed from a Greek perspective by Papaelias et al The comparative international approach features in research into teacher job satisfaction in India and Iran while McMahon reviews the impact of the Bologna Process Umrabulo ,2001 Witness to Power Mathews Phosa,2024-11-03 Mathews Phosa has been an eyewitness to the dramatic shifts of political power in South Africa He was involved in the Black Consciousness Movement the UDF and the ANC before fleeing into exile in 1985 and becoming an uMkhonto weSizwe commander in Mozambique A lawyer by training he was one of the first ANC members to return to South Africa to prepare the way for negotiations He was premier of Mpumalanga during the presidency of Nelson Mandela with whom he had a strong relationship Under Thabo Mbeki whom he had known in exile Phosa was pushed to the sidelines with false accusations that he was involved in a plot to overthrow the president Phosa had served under Jacob Zuma as an MK field commander in Mozambique and he became treasurer general of the ANC when Zuma became its president at Polokwane But Phosa later became a vocal critic of Zuma and they didn't speak for years until the night before Zuma's resignation Phosa and Cyril Ramaphosa had studied law together at the University of the North in the 1970s and fifty years later Phosa played a key role in advising him over the Phala Phala report that threatened to end his presidency Witness to Power is a gripping story of underground activities military operations negotiations political conflict and intrigue It provides fascinating new insights into the ruling party and its leaders by an ANC elder who worked with them all Cybercrime and Challenges in South Africa Stanley Osezua Ehiane,Sogo Angel Olofinbiyi,Sazelo Michael Mkhize,2023-11-01 The advent of the Internet for global advancement and development has opened the world to new crimes This is the first comprehensive book on the subject matter considering the absence of textbooks in teaching the subject matter in higher learning institutions Hitherto the book is distinctive and timely in the wake of the inclusion of the subject matter as a new curriculum in many African universities The book focuses on South Africa where the Internet has been misused by individuals to perpetuated crime which has been on the increase and unabated The book's contents and its discourse are significant to students in higher institutions researchers and organizations to give in depth insights into varied cybercrime on various forms and the manners in which cybercrimes have been executed Lastly the book contains instances where the Internet has been used to perpetuate crimes in recent times in South Africa Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders,Peter Limb,2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country s politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa
