Director's Guide to the Art of Stand-up Chris Head, 2018-07-12 Stand up is the ultimate solo art form. Yet behind the scenes you will increasingly find the shadowy figure of a director. For comics themselves and for those who support them, this is the first book to give the director's perspective on creating and performing stand up comedy. Drawing on his own experience of directing stand up alongside speaking to comedians and their directors, Chris Head produces a revealing perspective on the creative process: comic persona, writing, stand up structuring, material and delivering a performance. Directors interviewed include Logan Murray, John Gordillo and Simon McBurney, who between them have directed Eddie Izzard, Michael McIntyre, Milton Jones, Lenny Henry and French Saunders. With a foreword by BBC arts editor Will Gompertz and contributions from many other interviewees including Oliver Double, author of Getting the Joke, this is the only book that goes all the way from one liners to theatre via comedy club sets and full length shows. Perfect for stand ups from newbies to pros, students of comedy academics studying and teaching stand up and for directors themselves. A Director's Guide to the Art of Stand up offers hundreds of inspiring practical insights and shows how creating the comedian's highly personal individual act can be a deeply collaborative process.
