Hollywood by Hollywood Steven Cohan, 2019 The backstudio picture or the movie about movie making is a staple of Hollywood film production harking back to the silent era and extending to the present day What gives backstudios their coherence as a distinctive genre Steven Cohan argues in Hollywood by Hollywood is their fascination with the mystique of Hollywood as a geographic place a self contained industry and a fantasy of fame leisure sexual freedom and modernity Yet by the same token if backstudio pictures have rarely achieved blockbuster box office success what accounts for the film industry's interest in continuing to produce them The backstudio picture has been an enduring genre because aside from offering a director or writer a chance to settle old scores in branding filmmaking with the Hollywood mystique the genre solicits consumers' strong investment in the movies Whether inspiring the movie crazy fan girls of the early teens and twenties or the wannabe filmmakers of this century heading to the West Coast after their college graduations backstudios have given emotional weight and cultural heft to filmmaking as the quintessential American success story But more than that a backstudio picture is concerned with shaping perceptions of how the film industry works with masking how its product depends upon an industrial labor force including stardom and with determining how that work's value accrues from the Hollywood brand stamped onto the product Cohan supports his well theorized and well researched claims with nuanced discussions of over fifty backstudios some canonical and well known and others obscure and rarely seen Covering the hundred year timespan of feature length film production Hollywood by Hollywood offers an illuminating perspective for considering anew the history of American movies

Sanders,Anthony Masys,2022-09-15 For millennia humans waged war on land and sea The 20th century opened the skies and the stars introducing air and space as warfare domains Now the 21st century has revealed perhaps the most insidious domain of all cyberspace the fifth domain A realm free of physical boundaries cyberspace lies at the intersection of technology and psychology where one cannot see one s enemy and the most potent weapon is information The third book in the Great Power Competition series Cyberspace The Fifth Domain explores the emergence of cyberspace as a vector for espionage sabotage crime and war It examines how cyberspace rapidly evolved from a novelty to a weapon capable of influencing global economics and overthrowing regimes wielded by nation states and religious ideologies to stunning effect Cyberspace The Fifth Domain offers a candid look at the United States role in cyberspace offering realistic prescriptions for responding to international cyber threats on the tactical strategic and doctrinal levels answering the questions of how can we respond to these threats versus how should we respond What are the obstacles to and consequences of strategic and tactical response options What technological solutions are on the horizon Should the U S adopt a more multi domain offensive posture that eschews the dominant cyber vs cyber paradigm To answer these questions experts examine the technological threats to critical infrastructure cyber operations strategy tactics and doctrine information influence operations the weaponization of social media and much more      Minor Aesthetics Mieke Bleyen,2014-06-10 New perspectives on Belgian Surrealism and the photographic practices of Marcel Mari n Marcel Mari n 1920 1993 was a key figure of Belgian post war Surrealism He is widely acknowledged for his landmark work on Belgian Surrealism and his collaboration with future Situationists like Guy Ernest Debord in his journal Les L vres nues Nevertheless Mari n s texts collages photographs film and objects have to date remained understudied This is the first volume devoted to Mari n s photographic work Through a series of close readings Mieke Bleyen connects the collage and photographic practices of Mari n with his wider oeuvre particularly with his archival and editorial activities By applying Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of the minor this book proposes an alternative reading of Marin's anti-aesthetics and focuses on the affective range of his work The figure of Marin also serves as a case study that offers new perspectives on Belgian Surrealism's relation to mainstream Surrealism and the role of photography within Surrealism This volume moreover raises a critique on major art history's conception of time as linear progression and argues instead for twisted and extended temporalities in the case of Marcel Marin With previously unpublished images from Marin's private archive
