House of Huawei Eva Dou, 2025-01-14 Authoritative a tale that sits at the heart of the most significant geopolitical relationship today Financial Times There s probably no better account of China s rise to economic dominance as seen through the prism of a single company The Wall Street Journal ABOUT THE BOOK The untold story of the mysterious company that shook the world On the coast of southern China an eccentric entrepreneur spent three decades steadily building an obscure telecom company into one of the world s most powerful technological empires with hardly anyone noticing This all changed in December 2018 when the detention of Meng Wanzhou Huawei Technologies female scion sparked an international hostage standoff poured fuel on the US China trade war and suddenly thrust the mysterious company into the global spotlight In House of Huawei Washington Post technology reporter Eva Dou pieces together a remarkable portrait of Huawei s reclusive founder Ren Zhengfei and how he built a sprawling corporate empire one whose rise Western policymakers have become increasingly obsessed with halting Based on wide ranging interviews and painstaking archival research House of Huawei dissects the global web of power money influence surveillance bloodshed and national glory that Huawei helped to build and that has also ensnared it Wearable Devices for Cardiac Rhythm

Monitoring, Volume II Emma Svennberg, David Duncker, Dominik Linz, 2024-03-14 This Research Topic is the second volume of the Wearable Devices for Cardiac Rhythm Monitoring Vol II Please see the first volume here New wearable technologies for cardiac rhythm monitoring are gaining more and more importance in clinical routine in the field of cardiology and electrophysiology by physicians as well as patients These include but are by far not restricted to smartphone based ECG or PPG finger ECG smartwatches smart garments and more This opens new horizons for mHealth based patient care mHealth enhanced teleconsultations but also mass screening for heart rhythm disorders The proposed Research Topic aims to present new research on these technologies covering methodological aspects on wearable single and multiple lead ECG or photoplethysmography devices mass screening for atrial fibrillation or other arrhythmias with new devices implementation of mHealth into clinical pathways of cardiac diseases short or long term telemonitoring through wearables devices cost effectiveness and more The Cambridge Handbook of Technical Standardization Law Jorge L. Contreras, 2017-12-14

Technical standards are ubiquitous in the modern networked economy They allow products made and sold by different vendors to interoperate with little to no consumer effort and enable new market entrants to innovate on top of established technology platforms This groundbreaking volume edited by Jorge L Contreras assesses and analyzes the legal aspects of technical standards and standardization Bringing together more than thirty leading international scholars advocates and policymakers it focuses on two of the most contentious and critical areas pertaining to standards today in key jurisdictions around the world antitrust competition law and patent law A subsequent volume will focus on international trade copyright and administrative law This comprehensive detailed examination sheds new light on the standards that shape the global technology marketplace and will serve as an indispensable tool for scholars practitioners judges and policymakers everywhere

Consequences of COVID-19 Christine Crudo Blackburn, Gerald W. Parker, 2024-09-02 No disease has upended life more in the past fifty years than COVID 19 As the pandemic unfolded coeditors Christine Crudo Blackburn and Gerald W Parker saw how many areas of society are impacted and how those impacts can ripple through to other sectors Seeking to provide both warnings of these vulnerabilities and direction for future efforts to address them Blackburn and Parker have assembled a cross disciplinary multinational team of researchers and writers to provide a critical look at the global response success or failure to the COVID 19 pandemic

Consequences of COVID 19 A One Health Approach to the Responses Challenges and Lessons Learned reviews the multiple implications of COVID 19 for society in public health research in education in human animal interaction in public policy in media and online information and in domestic and international economic considerations Perhaps even more critically this well rounded analysis reviews the lessons learned to offer constructive directions for future research policymaking and education This important compendium will serve as a benchmark for the study of and preparedness for potential future public health crises such as COVID 19 As Blackburn notes in her conclusion this will not be the last pandemic It may not even be the last pandemic in our lifetime
