Bulletin French West Africa. Grand Conseil, 1920 Man Ray Arthur Lubow, 2021-01-01 A biography of the elusive but celebrated Dada and Surrealist artist and photographer connecting his Jewish background to his life and art Man Ray 1890 1976 a founding father of Dada and a key player in French Surrealism is one of the central artists of the twentieth century He is also one of the most elusive In this new biography journalist and critic Arthur Lubow uses Man Ray s Jewish background as one filter to understand his life and art Man Ray began life as Emmanuel Radnitsky the eldest of four children born in Philadelphia to a mother from Minsk and a father from Kiev When he was seven the family moved to the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn where both parents worked as tailors Defying his parents expectations that he earn a university degree Man Ray instead pursued his vocation as an artist embracing the modernist creed of photographer and avant garde gallery owner Alfred Stieglitz When at the age of thirty Man Ray relocated to Paris he unlike Stieglitz made a clean break with his past

Flam,Miriam Deutch,2003 This is a much needed important collection a goldmine of sources for scholars and students The texts articulate the key Primitivist aesthetic discourses of the period offering crucial insight into the complex and always changing nexus between culture politics and representation Because of the breadth of the materials covered and the controversies they raise this anthology is one of the all too rare volumes that not only will provide reference materials for years to come but also will feature centrally in classroom discussions Suzanne Preston Blier author of African Vodun Art Psychology and Power For almost a century art historians have fretted about the notion of primitivism in the arts This comprehensive in both senses of the word anthology is a peerless source of the history of responses to works categorized as primitive In its range the book touches upon all the troubling questions formal anthropological political historical that have bedeviled the study of the arts of Oceania Africa and North and South America and provides the grounds at last for intelligent pursuit of keener distinctions I regard this book as a superb contribution to the study of Modern art in fact indispensable Dore Ashton author of Noguchi East and West An extraordinarily useful and complete collection of primary documents many translated for the first time into English and almost all unlikely to be encountered elsewhere without serious effort Its five sections each with a lively and scholarly introduction reveal the diverse views of artists and writers on primitive art from Matisse Picasso and Fry to many far less known and sometimes surprising figures The book also uncovers the politics and aesthetics of the major museum exhibitions that gained acceptance for art that had been both reviled and mythologized Recent texts included are all germane This book will be invaluable for any college course on the topic Shelly Errington author of The Death of Authentic Primitive Art and Other Tales of Progress An exceptionally valuable anthology of seventy documents most heretofore unavailable in English on the ongoing controversies surrounding Primitivism and Modern art Insightfully chosen and annotated the collection is brilliantly introduced by Jack Flam's essay on the historical progression contexts and cultural complexities of more than one hundred years ideas about Primitivism Rich timely
