himself rather as prophesying i e bringing the Word of God to humankind Like Rabelais for whom laughter was a therapy to help one cope with the misery of the times Nostradamus thought of himself as a physician of the soul as much as of the body His unveiling of the menacing and horrendous events which await us in the future was a way of frightening his readers into the realisation that inner hatred was truly the greatest peril of all to which the sole remedy was to live in the love and peace of Christ This inspired interpretation penetrates the imaginative world of Nostradamus a man whose life is as mysterious as his writings It shows him in a completely new dimension securing for him a significant place among the major thinkers of the Renaissance Ce qui sera ! Henri Torné-Chavigny, Nostradamus, 1876 La Rumeur de Dieu - Apparitions,
