Connection	When you get ready for a party you make a list of things to do. Writers make a list of things to do before they can celebrate, too!
Teaching Point	Writers fix and fancy up their work.
Teaching Demonstration, guided practice, explanation with example, or inquiry	TW display a list of things to help the students get ready to celebrate (p.155)
Active Engagement	SW tell their partner their plan for the day.
Link	Writers will make a plan and work hard to fix and fancy up their work using the list to remind them what needs to be done.
Independent Practice/Conferencing: (30 minutes) Differentiation: All conferences are differentiated to meet the needs of the student(s) at the time. TW research, decide, teach, and link during conferences to review or extend (p.73, Guide to Common Core WW)	SW work independently or with their partner while you conference with individual students or small groups. Allow students to lead small groups in a conference.
Mid Workshop teaching point (2 minutes) Support to keep writers working, check in referencing teaching point, give them something to try, point out something someone is doing to celebrate.	Celebrate amazing work that students are doing.
Sharing: (10 minutes)	SW practice reading their work aloud to prepare for reading it in front of an audience.

Lucy Calkins Writing Folklore Lesson Plans:

Using Art to Teach Writing Traits Jennifer Klein, Elizabeth Stuart Whitehead, 2018-11-23 Our purpose for writing this book is so that children can become better communicators by expressing their thoughts feelings and ideas The ability to communicate is a universal goal in society If children can better communicate in their speaking and writing clearer more precise messages will be received and communication around the world will be strengthened The writing traits are a way for teachers and children to discuss and analyze written pieces for strengths and needs in order communicate their thoughts and expresses their ideas through writing in a way that touches their audience Adding art into this established process will allow children to learn about the writing traits in a text free environment before applying the traits to their own writing Children will learn how artists communicate their thoughts feelings and ideas and how the traits that writers use are similar to the traits that artists use in order to better communicate express themselves and process the world around them In addition we will discuss the revision and editing process Art is an exciting and engaging subject for students This book will allow children to transfer their knowledge of how artists use the traits to how writers use the traits and then to how they can utilize the traits in their own writing to better communicate with their audience and process the world around them Teaching

Early Writing and Reading Together Connie Campbell Dierking, 2007 The writing reading connection means more than having your students write under the influence of literature that they have read Noted author and educator Connie Campbell Dierking shows you how to develop a literacy connected classroom including using oral storytelling to scaffold primary reading and writing She supplies more than 50 mini lessons organized by their classroom function to help you explicitly teach foundational literacy skills during writer s workshop or whole class and small group reading instruction Dierking encourages you to make the most of the writing reading connection by thinking about some basic questions when you re crafting your literacy instruction How can I connect the conversations in reading and writing workshop What can I learn about the readers in my classroom through their writing What can my students learn about reading through writing How can I teach young writers to support their readers How can I teach readers how to use a writer s supports intentionally Innovative Voices
