Luther S Rhetoric:

Luther's Rhetoric Neil R. Leroux, 2002 Others a detailed analysis of the organization strategies and style of the Rhetoric of the Reformation Peter Matheson, 2004-07-09 Peter Matheson has written the first study in English of the Reformation as a literary phenomenon This book traces the first emergence of a public opinion in European history Using insights from social history religion and literature Professor Matheson explores the connection between the communal Reformation and the outpouring of pamphlets in the early 1520 s These pamphlets helped create a dynamic and subversive network of communication where language and structure were of equal importance He also examines the relative strengths of polemical and dialogical approaches in winning adherents the motivations of the authors and the expectations of audiences

Reframing Rhetorical History Kathleen J. Turner, Jason Edward Black, 2022-05-17 Collection of essays that reassesses history as rhetoric and rhetorical history as practice Grounding the Nietzsche Rhetoric of Earth Adrian Del Caro, 2004 This treatment is the first to comprehensively address the issue of where Nietzsche stands in relation to environment and it will contribute to the greening of Nietzsche Using a philological method Del Caro reveals the ecumenical Nietzsche whose doctrines are strategies for responsible and creative partnership between humans and earth The major doctrines are shown to be organically related to early writings linked to paganism the quotidian and the closest things of Human All Too Human Perspective is shifted from time to place in the eternal recurrence of the same and from power to empowerment in The Will to Power Latomus and Luther Anna Vind, 2019-09-16 Who was Jacob Latomus What did he write in the series of lectures to which Luther penned an answer in 1521 an answer which is now so central to many interpretations of the great reformer And how is the reading of that answer affected when it is preceded by an interpretation of what Latomus wrote The study goes through the most important parts of Latomus treatise against Luther 1521 The aim is to identify Latomus theological convictions and thus to pin down who and what Luther was up against The second and major part of the book is a reading of Luther s pamphlet against Latomus 1521 Parallels are drawn with Latomus theology in order to facilitate as much as possible an appreciation of the differences between the two The comparison between the two theologians shows that they speak completely different languages and that their viewpoints do not square at all Basically their ways depart in their understanding of God s word and how it is communicated to man This generates two ways of perceiving the matter of theology and of speaking theologically and prevents mutual understanding Latomus cannot understand Luther s view of the autonomy of God s word and the special character of proclamation and hence a theology which is incompatible with natural reason Even though he accepts a division between a natural and a supernatural rationality and thus admits that natural reason has a limit he grants the very same natural reason an important role in the ascent of cognition towards revelation Everything else such as Luther s theology is a dehumanization of the human being Luther on the other hand regards Latomus theology as a result of the impulse in sinful man towards ruling and controlling the word of God with his own inadequate natural abilities In Luther's eyes that proclamation of Christ which in the shape of a human being comes to man in contradiction of everything human here disappears in the twinkling of an eye

The Rhetoric of Cultural Dialogue

Jeffrey S. Librett, 2000 In this groundbreaking work the author effects the first extended rhetorical philosophical reading of the historically problematic relationship between Jews and Germans based on an analysis of texts from the Enlightenment through Modernism by Moses Mendelssohn Friedrich and Dorothea Schlegel Karl Marx Richard Wagner Friedrich Nietzsche and Sigmund Freud The theoretical underpinning of the work lies in the author's rereading in terms of contemporary rhetorical theory of the medieval tradition known as figural representation which defines the Jewish-Christian relation as that between the dead prefigural letter and the living fulfilled spirit After arguing that the German Enlightenment ultimately plays out the historical phantasm of a necessary Judaization of Protestant rationality the author shows that German Early Romanticism consists fundamentally in the attempt to solve the aporias raised by this impossible confrontation between Protestant spirit and Jewish letter In readings of Dorothea Schlegel Mendelssohn's daughter and her husband Friedrich Schlegel the author provides a new interpretation of the Neo-Catholic turn of later German Romanticism Further he situates the proleptic end and reversal of the project of Jewish emancipation in the two extreme versions of late nineteenth-century anti-Judaism those of Marx and Wagner here viewed as binary concretizations of a specifically post-Romantic paganized Protestantism Finally the author argues that twentieth-century Modernism as represented by Nietzsche and Freud renews if in a multiply ironic displacement the secret Judaizing tendencies of the Enlightenment Fascism and Communism both denigrate this Modernism which affirms the letter of language as quasi-synonymous with the force of temporality or anticipatory repetition that disrupts all claims to the full presence of spirit The book ends with a note on recent debates about Holocaust memory

Understanding Martin Luther's Demonological Rhetoric in His Treatise Against the Heavenly Prophets (1525) Harold Ristau, 2010 Martin Luther's rhetoric of the demonic in his treatise Against the Heavenly Prophets in the Matter of Images and Sacraments 1525 expresses a soteriological argument regarding the necessary relation between the two realms of faith and works which he reformulates as the proper relationship between justification and sanctification This book builds upon the revisionist approaches of interdisciplinary studies by applying the concerns of rhetoric and linguistics as new tools of research in the field of Reformation Studies

The Rhetorical Word Theo Hobson, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This book offers a bold reading of Protestant tradition from a rhetorical and literary perspective Arguing that Protestant thought is based in a rhetorical performance of authority Hobson draws on a wide range of modern and postmodern thought to defend this account of rhetorical authority from various charges of authoritarianism With close readings of Augustine Luther Kierkegaard and Barth this book develops a new rhetorical theology of the Word and also a new critique of secular modernity with particular reference to modern literature and the thought of Nietzsche Confronting the related issues of rhetoric and authority Hobson provides a provocative account of modern theology which offers new perspectives on theology's relationship to literature and postmodern thought

Rhetorical Power Steven Mailloux, 2018-08-06 In this provocative and forcefully written book Steven Mailloux takes issue with the validity of a number of distinctions commonly made in contemporary literary theory and cultural studies: distinctions between theory and history, reader and text, truth and ideology, aesthetics and politics. Mailloux first presents the case for a rhetorical hermeneutics and against foundationalist theories of interpretation. Doing hermeneutic theory, he argues, entails doing rhetorical history. By means of a detailed analysis of reader response criticism, he highlights the connections between institutional politics and the interpretive rhetoric of academic literary criticism. Mailloux then uses Adventures of Huckleberry Finn as an exemplary text, relating Mark Twain's rhetoric to the cultural politics of post-Reconstruction debates about racist ideology. He places his reader-oriented interpretation within the rhetorical history of controversies over the meaning and value of Huckleberry Finn. Finally, in a far-ranging study of cultural reception, he juxtaposes the twentieth-century concern about the topic of race in Huckleberry Finn with the nineteenth-century audience's very different concerns about juvenile delinquency and the bad boy boom. In the final part of the book, Mailloux restates his critique of foundationalist hermeneutics through readings of Ken Kesey, Michel Foucault, Edward Said, and Richard Rorty, and he concludes by examining the role of rhetoric and theory in a congressional dispute over the Reagan administration's reinterpretation of the Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty. Rhetorical Power will be welcomed by readers in literary theory and American studies as well as in such fields as speech communication, the sociology of culture, and social and intellectual history, and by others interested in the politics of persuasion.

The Rhetoric of Racism Revisited Mark Lawrence McPhail, 2002 Looks at the rhetorical dynamics of racism: how, in addition to social and material structures and institutions, language can be a cause and facilitator of racism. Thoroughly discusses essentialism and racial difference theories of complicity and coherence, and the theory of racism as a problem of psychiatry. back cover

Chapters explore topics such as the properties of argumentation in the realm of rhetoric, the use of presentational devices, the role of rhetoric in the evolving formation of public morality, conditions for democratic argumentation, argument pedagogy, rhetorical insights into science communication, and other features within the realm of rhetorical argumentation. This book is relevant to students and researchers in linguistics, rhetoric, philosophy, argumentation studies, and communication studies. New Testament Rhetoric, Second Edition Ben Witherington III, Jason A. Myers, 2022-09-28 Witherington and Myers provide a much-needed introduction to the ancient art of persuasion and its use within the various New Testament documents. More than just an exploration of the use of the ancient rhetorical tools and devices this guide introduces the reader to all that went into convincing an audience about some subject Witherington and Myers make the case that rhetorical criticism is a more fruitful approach to the NT epistles than the oft employed approaches of literary and discourse criticism Familiarity with the art of rhetoric also helps the reader explore non epistolary genres In addition to the general introduction to rhetorical criticism the book guides readers through the many and varied uses of rhetoric in most NT documents not only telling readers about rhetoric in the NT but showing them the way it was employed This brief guide book is intended to provide the reader with an entrance into understanding the rhetorical analysis of various parts of the NT the value such studies bring for understanding what is being proclaimed and defended in the NT and how Christ is presented in ways that would be considered persuasive in antiquity from the introduction

Rhetorical Criticism of the New Testament Carl Joachim Classen, 2021-11-22 Please note that this title is only available to customers in the USA Canada and Mexico NO salesrights for Rest of World In view of the current debate on the application of Greek and Roman rhetoric to biblical texts C Joachim Classen aims at determining both the opportunities and the limits of such forms of criticism stressing the importance of supplementing the ancient categories with modern categories He emphasizes the difference between letters such as Paul's epistles and other kinds of texts for example the gospels and the need to select the aspects and criteria of rhetorical criticism accordingly and tries to illustrate how such criticism may be practiced In addition he answers the question to what extent Paul was familiar with Greek rhetoric by an examination of his vocabulary Classen analyzes at length Melancthon's early lectures his handbooks and his commentaries to show some of the roots of this type of criticism the manner in which its greatest exponent developed it and the qualities ideally required for its successful application
