Happiest Refugee Teacher Resources:

Shorties Engelbert Thaler, 2016-08-15 Short narrative texts are good for the language classroom because they are short and narrative. Therefore, this volume treats the teaching potential of Shorties on a theoretical level (part A), a methodological level (part B), and a practical level (part C). Part A highlights the topic from the perspectives of different academic disciplines; in this case, from a TEFL as well as from a linguistic and literary viewpoint. In part B, methodological contributions on selected texts, media, and procedures are assembled. Part C is a collection of concrete sample lessons for teaching English at various levels. These lesson plans have been designed at university, carried out, and evaluated by 11 experienced teachers and finally revised by the editor.

Inclusive Pedagogy Across the Curriculum Joanne Deppeler, Tim Loreman, Lani Florian, Ron Smith, Chris Forlin, 2015-12-02 This volume focuses on an inclusive pedagogical approach for enhancing teaching and learning in key areas of curriculum, including literacy, mathematics, science, social studies, and the arts.

Literature Education in the Asia-Pacific Chin Ee Loh, Suzanne S. Choo, Catherine Beavis, 2018-03-29 The continual rise of English as a global lingua franca has meant that English literature, both as a discipline and as a tool in ESL and EFL classrooms, is being used in varied ways outside the inner circle of English. This edited collection provides an overview of English literature education in the Asia Pacific in global times, bringing to international attention a rich understanding of the trends, issues, and challenges specific to nations within the Asia Pacific region. Comprising contributions from Australia, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, and Vietnam, the collection addresses the diversity of learners in different national, cultural, and teaching contexts. In doing so, it provides insights into historical and current trends in literature education, foregrounds specific issues and challenges in policymaking and implementation, presents practical matters concerning text selection, use of literature in the language classroom, innovative practices in literature education, and raises pressing and important questions about the nature, purpose, and importance of literature education in global times.

History, Geography and Civics John Buchanan, 2013-09-09 History, Geography, and Civics Education provides an in-depth and engaging introduction to teaching and learning socio-environmental education. It explores the centrality of socio-environmental issues to all aspects of life and education and makes explicit links between pedagogical theories and classroom activities. The book provides links to the Australian Curriculum.

Chasing the Devil at Foggy Bottom Shaun A. Casey, 2023-01-24 Understanding the role of religion in global politics is crucial for effective diplomacy. Many American policy makers are squeamish about religion's role in diplomacy. Nevertheless, religion plays a crucial and complex part in global affairs, such as in sustainable development, various human rights issues, and fomenting and mitigating conflict. Shaun A. Casey, the founding director of the US Department of State's Office of Religion and Global Affairs, makes a compelling case for the necessity of understanding global religion in Chasing the Devil at Foggy Bottom. In this fresh and provocative narrative, Casey writes frankly about his work integrating sophisticated research-driven policy into the State Department under Secretary of State

John Kerry Their new strategy went beyond older paradigms that focused myopically on religious freedom or countering violent extremism Such reductive approaches Casey insists cost thousands of lives and trillions of dollars in the US s ill fated invasion of Iraq in 2003 Witty and astute Casey recounts his team s challenges in DC politics as well as in the major global events of his tenure including climate change the rise of ISIL and the refugee crisis On a global stage with higher stakes than ever effective diplomacy is imperative Yet in this critical moment the United States s reputation has faltered Chasing the Devil at Foggy Bottom offers a path forward to better foreign policy Foreword Reviews INDIES Book of the Year Award in Political and Social Sciences Finalist 2023 Restoring Students' Innate Power Louise El Yaafouri,2022-03-31 This book explores the effects of trauma on newcomer students and presents stress mitigating strategies that empower these multilingual students as they transition to a new environment Diverse insights and experiences bring high powered learning spaces to life However the cultural backgrounds of newcomer students and their families can be very different from the dominant norms of the new community resulting in misalignments that constitute a persistent challenge In addition the process of arriving can exacerbate stress Entering a new school or classroom means situating oneself within a new context of language culture community and shifting personal identities This transition shock contributes to a sense of diminished power In serving these students we can t afford to leave transition shock out of our conversations about trauma We must not only stitch together pieces of culturally responsive practice and trauma informed care but also become practitioners of stress mitigating strategies that empower newcomer students We must focus instruction on our students unique identities We must restore their power In Restoring Students Innate Power newcomer educator and cultural competency expert Louise El Yaafouri presents An understanding of transition shock and how stress and trauma affect recent arrivers The four pillars of transition shock and how they affect learning How students see themselves and how the cultural aspects of their identities inform teachers work in mitigating transition shock How social emotional learning links to trauma informed practice This book isn t exclusively about trauma it s about restoring power The distinction is critical Focusing on the trauma or traumatic event roots us in the past Restoration of power moves us forward Refugee Support and Moral Practice in Slovakia Eva-Maria Walther,2024-07-02 This ethnography explores the political quandaries and personal dilemmas that refugee supporters volunteers and NGO employees in Slovakia face while working with their target group Operating in a refugee hostile political and public climate they navigate scarce or absent refugee care infrastructures and strict supervision by state authorities Building on extensive participant observation in three different refugee support organizations the book shows how moral codes and emotional templates shape the implementation of refugee support structuring encounters and clashes between refugees helpers and bureaucrats The ethnography illustrates how despite a plenitude of divergent constraints the actors produce remarkably permanent makeshift solutions for good enough care At the same time it is on the level of personal encounters and clashes that ideological and practical delineations between state and non state actors and between refugee hostile and refugee friendly positions become blurred NGO refugee supporters sometimes converge with state policies in practices of control while state authorities occasionally become deeply invested in providing empathetic care The book revisits narratives of illiberal backsliding and xenophobia in Central and Eastern European countries by describing the complicated emergence and perpetuation of refugee hostile sentiments in an exemplary setting Supporting Student
