Modern Approaches to Researching Multilingualism Danuta Gabryś-Barker, Eva Vetter, 2024-04-15 The volume offers a collection of the most recent research coming from scholars and practitioners in the field of multilingualism research in various contexts of natural immersion environments school formal instruction grounded in multilingual societies and individual multilinguality of semi monolingual countries The studies included in the book constitute an exemplification of new methods of research used e g narratives visualizations metaphors as well as new approaches to multilingualism affordances dominant language constellations The volume is divided into four parts Part One focuses on different dimensions of multilingualism Part Two zooms in on the concept of affordances and their role in the development of multilingual competence Part Three concentrates on dominant language constellations in different contexts and finally Part Four shifts the focus to instructional practices in teaching multiple languages

Linguistic Atlas of South Africa Van der Merwe, I.J., Van der Merwe, J.H., 2007-02-01 This atlas maps various time space dimensions of South Africa s remarkable linguistic diversity to cast the geography of language within the conceptual framework of geolinguistics It shows how historical patterns of spatial language preponderance have developed to produce current patterns and allows understanding of the way landscape has become regionally ingrained in the vocabulary of languages Here language is cast as a barometer of the social dynamics processes of space and place spatial convergence regional competition expansion and dominance segregation and assimilation ethnicity social ecology language identity social interaction and migration trends

The Linguistic Landscape of Post-Apartheid South Africa Liesel Hibbert, 2016-06-24 The appointment of Nelson Mandela as President of South Africa in 1994 signalled the end of apartheid and transition to a new democratic constitution This book studies discursive trends during the first twenty years of the new democracy outlining the highlights and challenges of transforming policy practice and discursive formations The book analyses a range of discourses which signal how and by what processes the linguistic landscape and identities of South Africa s inhabitants have changed in this time finding that struggles in South African politics go hand in hand with shifts in the linguistic landscape In a country now characterised by multilingualism heteroglossia polyphony and translanguaging the author debates where the discourse practices of those born post 1994 may lead

Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magema Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa Controlled Natural Language B. Davis,C.M.

Keet,A. Wyner,2018-09-12 Controlled natural languages CNLs are based on natural language and apply restrictions on vocabulary grammar and or semantics They fall broadly into 3 groups Some are designed to improve communication for non native speakers of the respective natural language in others the restrictions are to facilitate the use of computers to analyze texts for example to improve computer aided translation and a third group of CNLs are designed to enable reliable automated reasoning and formal knowledge representation from seemingly natural texts This book presents the 11 papers selected from 14 submitted and delivered at the sixth in the series of workshops on Controlled Natural Language CNL 2018 held in Maynooth Ireland in August 2018 The papers cover a full spectrum of controlled natural languages ranging from human oriented to machine processable controlled languages and from more theoretical results to interfaces reasoning engines and the real life application of CNLs The book will be of interest to all those working with controlled natural language whatever their approach A Socio-economic Atlas of South Africa Nick Tait,1996 This atlas presents a set of demographic socio economic and cultural profiles of South Africa in a clear and easily understandable format Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education Kgari-Masondo, Maserole Christina,2025-03-28 Literature indicates that sociolinguists and educationists often claim multilingual practice and Africanizing and Indigenizing education will jeopardize national unity and social cohesion Such claims delay the implementation of decolonization policies and the transformation of the curriculum under false assumptions However research reveals many Indigenous students struggle with higher educational content which is often presented through languages that are unfamiliar to them This implies that there is a need to uncover resources that can assist in necessitating the implementation of Indigenous education globally and that all multilingual strategies in education must be based on quality mother tongue illustrative content as its foundation As a result further research on the subject is necessary to enhance teaching strategies that reach all Indigenous students Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education illustrates the need for the implementation of a decolonized teaching and learning curriculum with integrated resources as models It explores how to improve Indigenous knowledge content and teaching methods Covering topics such as cultural identity African research methodology and Indigenous media this book is an excellent resource for teachers policymakers school administrators researchers scholars academicians and
