Mickolus, Susan L. Simmons, 2014-08-11 In the last 50 years terrorists have committed hundreds of horrific acts of violence to further their causes This accessible single volume text covers the most significant terrorist acts across contemporary history worldwide Since the attacks on September 11 2001 terrorism has remained the chief threat to international stability and security The 50 Worst Terrorist Attacks draws on all forms of terrorism international transnational and domestic anywhere in the world covering all types of acts e.g. bombings assassinations armed attacks skyjackings by any organization and ideology The work goes beyond documenting the key events that occurred in or involved the United States it also covers important terrorist attacks by left and right wing organizations religiously motivated groups and separatists that are largely unknown among Western audiences Each entry supplies the details of the attack the perpetrators victims and eventual resolution as well as the political social and international contexts in which the event occurred Readers will grasp the evolution of terrorist activities and methodologies in the 20th and 21st centuries understand the importance of each event in the development of the terrorist repertoire and gauge the responses intended to counter these new kinds of attacks The Green Movement in Iran Hamid Dabashi, 2017-09-08 The Green Movement in Iran contains Hamid Dabashi's most important writings on the Iran's June 2009 election its tumultuous aftermath and the characteristics and aspirations of the emerging Green Movement These analyses range from close analysis of the nature of the events to the Green Movement's historical background and future political consequences The writings have been modified and updated for book publication The volume presents Dabashi's account of the events since June 12 2009 the Election Day itself and his recap of highlights of the build up period to the mass protests He provides insightful background for events on the ground dealing with debates about the credibility of the election He then discusses political continuity in Iran as well as the characteristics of the Green Movement Dabashi argues that the reaction of the custodians of the Islamic Republic to the charge of the election being a fraud only affirms its lost legitimacy and casts the system as being neither Islamic nor a republic Dabashi also comments on US politics and its relations to Iran and the Green Movement pointing out shortcomings in American media culture The role of the Iranian opposition in the Green Movement and American political policies the political and economic consequence of the U S sanctions against Iran and the way these may be interpreted by Iranian society are all viewed from an enlightening perspective Dabashi argues that the Iranian regime suffering deeply from legitimacy issues makes use of its bureaucratic economic and political leverage to stage a show of support and project division among the people
