Research Handbook of Innovation and Creativity for Marketing Management Eric Shiu, 2017-04-28 This groundbreaking Handbook is a collection of the most recent research in innovation and creativity as it applies to marketing management It uniquely combines the work of innovation and creativity scholars in the same book Motorboating - ND, 1984-01 The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 Mysticism, Ineffability and Silence in Philosophy of Religion Laura E. Weed, 2023-01-13 The authors in this volume explore a wide variety of the contemporary approaches to mystical and religious experience to elucidate what religious experience is in its own terms and how its practitioners understand it This anthology features contributions that point out that contemporary studies of consciousness sociology hermeneutics neuroscience medicine and other fields are revealing that there is much more to be said for the inner life of a human s consciousness than reductionists and behaviorists will allow This book is one of very few that primarily takes the stance of academic practitioners explaining their own experience rather than that of academics trying to explain the phenomena away as really politics or sociology or delusion or psychological pathology or literary flights of fancy or an aberration of any of the other academic fields Most of the authors in this volume embrace the task of explaining and analyzing religious experience mysticism and the healing power of silence and presence using the resources of all of the academic disciplines as appropriate The essays contained analyze religious and non religious mystical and profoundly personal experiences across several world religions and in areas such as art and music as well as in solving personal crises such as family disruption and patriarchal oppression The authors address the subject matter through analyses of the frequent and destructive failures of language or just noise to capture or express the nuances of the inner life of a person It is this very ineffability of self that renders the spiritual emotional and interior life of individuals beyond cognition and perception of the straightforward sorts embraced by most cognitive disciplines The contributors come from a variety of cross disciplinary fields to bring forth the possibilities for an intuitive and creative rich and growing inner life for a human This text appeals to students researchers and practitioners Samādhi Mike Sayama, 1985-10-01 The key to self development says Mike Sayama is the experience of Samadhi a state of relaxed concentration in which the individual neither freezes out of fear nor clings due to desire Simply stated samadhi is the free flow of vital energy within the body and between the body and the universe Moving effortlessly across traditions and techniques Sayama discovers that sages throughout history Greek philosophers German mystics Indian seers and our own Albert Einstein among others have taught that this experience of transcendental oneness lies at the heart of full self realization The first part of the book studies self realization in Zen Buddhism The author pinpoints its essence in Buddha s enlightenment The development of Zen is then traced continuing down to living masters who in very recent times have transplanted their lineages from Japan to the United States Sayama notes that we must choose as masters those to whom the authentic teaching has been transmitted through generations and he examines in loving detail the sometimes strange and astonishing behaviors of those whose very presence communicates the state of samadhi The second part of the book presents Zen therapy a way of self development emphasizing the cultivation of samadhi through psychophysical training Sayama compares the effects of Rolfing Feldenkrais and Zen therapy on the human body and mind He includes easy to follow directions for creating the inner state he describes He tells vivid stories of extraordinary cases treated from the point of view that the best therapy is nothing less than the removal of all dualism Four main practices are presented zazen meditation hara development circulation of the vital energy and communication
