Redeeming Words David Michael Kleinberg-Levin, 2013-11-01 Probing study of how literature can redeem the revelatory redemptive powers of language In this probing look at Alfred Döblin's 1929 novel Berlin Alexanderplatz and the stories of W G Sebald Redeeming Words offers a philosophical meditation on the power of language in literature David Kleinberg Levin draws on the critical theory of Benjamin and Adorno the idealism and romanticism of Kant Hegel Hölderlin Novalis and Schelling and the nineteenth and twentieth century thought of Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida He shows how Döblin and Sebald writers with radically different styles working in different historical moments have in common a struggle against forces of negativity and an aim to bring about in response a certain redemption of language Kleinberg Levin considers the fast paced staccato and hard cut sentences of Döblin and the ghostly languorous and melancholy prose fiction of Sebald to articulate how both writers use language in an attempt to recover and convey this utopian promise of happiness for life in a time of mourning

Copyright Office,1912      Sir Francis Bacon's Journals Lochithea,2007-08 Be calm good wind blow not a word away for this is a meticulous account of Sir Francis Bacon s lifetime written as journal entries and with his style I have no more made my book than my book has made me tis a book consubstantial with the author of a peculiar design a member of my life and whose business is not designed for others as that of all other books      Days of God James Buchan,2013-10-15 A myth busting insider s account of the Iranian Revolution of 1979 that destroyed US influence in the country and transformed the politics of the Middle East and the world The 1979 Islamic revolution in Iran was one of the seminal events of our time It inaugurated more than thirty years of war in the Middle East and fostered an Islamic radicalism that shapes foreign policy in the United States and Europe to this day Drawing on his lifetime of engagement with Iran James Buchan explains the history that gave rise to the Revolution in which Ayatollah Khomeini and his supporters displaced the Shah with little diffi culty Mystifyingly to outsiders the people of Iran turned their backs on a successful Westernized government for an amateurish religious regime Buchan dispels myths about the Iranian Revolution and instead assesses the historical forces to which it responded He puts the extremism of the Islamic regime in perspective a truly radical revolution it can be compared to the French or Russian Revolu tions Using recently declassified diplomatic papers and Persian language news reports diaries memoirs interviews and theological tracts Buchan illumi nates both Khomeini and the Shah His writing is always clear dispassionate and informative The Iranian Revolution was a turning point in modern history and James Buchan s Days of God is as London s Independent put it a compelling beautifully written history of that event      Liturgy and Sacrament, Mystagogy and Martyrdom Jeffrey L. Morrow,2020-10-13 For far too long the Bible has been studied as just one among many historical and cultural documents from ancient history That it is a foundational text for Western civilization is clear What is too often forgotten or ignored in academic discussions however is that the Bible has also inspired the lives of countless saints throughout history men and women who sought to love God and love neighbor to the point of offering heroic sacrifices sometimes giving up their very lives Much of biblical scholarship over the past two centuries however has reduced the Bible to a dead historical document with little to no relevance for today beyond intellectual curiosity This in part lies at the root of the tragic separation of theology from biblical studies That theology and biblical exegesis are at an impasse has become a commonplace in academic discourse Liturgy and Sacrament Mystagogy and Martyrdom is an attempt to bridge the gap between theology and exegesis It seeks to develop a theological interpretation of Scripture relying upon the best of traditional Christian exegesis and modern biblical scholarship so that the Bible can serve once again as the wellspring of Christian life      Will All be Saved? Laurence Malcolm Blanchard,2015-04-01 This book provides a survey and critical assessment of the doctrine of universal salvation in contemporary western theology within the context of the historic development of the doctrine      The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1899 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom      Where Theory and Practice Meet Laurence Wong,2016-08-17 Where Theory and Practice Meet is a collection of nineteen papers in translation studies Unlike many similar books published in recent decades which are mostly non translation oriented veering to issues with little or no relevance to translation this book focuses on the translation process on theory formulation with reference to actual translation on getting to grips with translation problems and on explaining translation in language which can be understood by the general reader Perceptive and wide ranging the book covers language pairs that include Chinese English French German Italian Spanish Latin and Classical Greek and discusses among other things translations of Dante s La Divina Commedia translations of Shakespeare s Hamlet Goethe s Prometheus as a case of untranslatability the challenge of translating Garcilaso de la Vega s Primera gloga into Chinese John Minford s translation of martial arts fiction and Lin Shu s translation of Alexandre Dumas s La Dame aux cam lias

Narratives of Annihilation, Confinement, and Survival Anja Tippner,Anna Artwińska,2019-05-20 The concept of camp narratives rather than Holocaust narratives or Gulag narratives is based on the assumption that literary accounts of camp experiences share common traits aesthetically as well as thematically The book presents readings of camp literature that underscore the similarities between texts about Soviet gulag camps Nazi camps and about other camp experiences While literature about Nazi concentration camps still serves as a point of reference for camp narratives in the same way that the Holocaust serves as a point of reference for other genocidal operations socialist labor and penal camps have become transnational lieux de m moire in their own right since 1989 This volume intends to provide a theoretical frame as well as an overview of several important European camp literatures and case studies of iconic camp narratives and to take a comparative and transnational perspective on the genre of the camp narrative
