High Performance Structures and Materials VI Willy Patrick Wilde, C. A. Brebbia, Santiago Hernández, 2012 Containing the edited papers presented at the Sixth International Conference on High Performance Structures and Materials High Performance Structures and Materials VI addresses the issues involved with advanced types of structures particularly those based on new concepts or new materials Contributions will highlight the latest developments in design optimisation manufacturing and experimentation in these areas The use of novel materials and new structural concepts nowadays is not restricted to highly technical areas like aerospace aeronautical applications or the automotive industry but affects all engineering fields including those such as civil engineering and architecture Most high performance structures require the development of a generation of new materials which can more easily resist a range of external stimuli or react in a non conventional manner The book will cover such topics as Composite materials and structures Lightweight structures Nanocomposites High performance concretes Concrete fibres Automotive composites Steel structures Natural fibre composites Timber structures Material characterisation Experiments and numerical analysis Damage and fracture mechanics Computational intelligence Adaptable and mobile structures Environmentally friendly structures

Developing Africa's Financial Services Dana T. Redford, 2017-05-11 Financial services are an essential element in powering entrepreneurial activity beyond resource extraction in Africa This book examines the macro trends and highlights inspiring success stories of entrepreneurial financial sector ventures that are making a lasting contribution to the economic development of various sub Saharan African countries

The New Constitutional Law of Kenya. Principles, Government and Human Rights Kiwinda Mbondenyi, Osogo Ambani, 2012 The golden thread that cuts across the various chapters of the book is the emphasis that good constitutions anchor certain tenets that have garnered recognition as hallmarks of democratic dispensation These hallmarks include the concept of separation of powers the doctrine of the rule of law constitutionalism and human rights These attributes have largely been secured by the 2010 Constitution Thus this book is expected to contribute to this new promise by making knowledge on the Constitution accessible through breaking down and contextualising its provisions It is certain to be useful to law and government students lawyers researchers and other persons who seek to understand the new constitutional order

African Dynamics in a Multipolar World ,2013-05-16 Fifty years after the foundation of the OAU and the consolidation of most African states and institutions the international panorama and Africa s position in it have changed considerably The world s geopolitical and economic configuration has evolved with new actors appearing in a new period of globalization In tone with ECAS 2013 this volume proposes that the experiences appearing in Africa question dominant paradigms in terms of political practice and academic reflection and thus offer a clear challenge to the academic community The volume offers clues to answer questions such as What is the impact of the current processes of globalization for African countries and African citizens How should African Studies be engaged to gauge African dynamics both at a local and global level What interdisciplinary means and tools should be brought in to produce an epistemologically relevant view or narrative of the issues under analysis

Women's Empowerment for Sustainability in Africa Robert Dibie,2019-01-17 This book uses an open explorative approach to deal with the different aspects of gender discrimination and gender empowerment policies as well as their impact on economic development and capacity building in several African countries It uses primary and secondary data to present the argument that without the full input of women sustainable development will not be achieved in many African countries This book is the first text written by knowledgeable gender issue experts that understand the culture of and lived and conducted research in

Africa It provides many examples of the relationships between gender and economic development around the African continent highlighting different processes and practices As such the contributors here illustrate the impact of weak gender policies and the ability to adequately develop female capacity building that could lead to wide spread sustainable economic growth in Africa They also explore a wide range of new dimensions and variables that are commonly ignored by other text books on gender equality The book will help graduate undergraduate students and other readers to understand women s policies in the past present and future by analysing and illustrating cultural political and socio historical contexts which have shaped women s role in the economic and sustainable development of Africa

Discourses of Globalisation and Higher Education Reforms Joseph Zajda,W. James Jacob,2022-03-15 This book examines some of the major higher education reforms and policy shifts globally particularly in the light of recent shifts in quality and standards driven education and policy research It critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current higher education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that changes in the relationship between the state and higher education policy affect current trends in higher education reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and higher education reforms and examine both the reasons and outcomes of higher education reforms and policy change The book analyses and evaluates the policy shifts in methodological approaches to globalisation and higher education reforms and their impact on education policy and pedagogy The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation comparative education research and higher education reforms
