

Prayer for a Child's First Communion

Lord Jesus,

Bless the children coming forward to receive Holy Communion for the first time.

May this day be an initial step into a life-long love of the Eucharist.

Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to you for comfort, guidance, and wisdom as they grow into full discipleship.

Thank you for their innocence and goodness.

May their hands, extended in anticipation of your Body and Blood, inspire all of us to cherish this sacred sacrament.

Cameron-Smith, 2019-11-12 As Catholic parents we have one fundamental mission to raise children who know and love God and who are so in love with Christ that they can't help but share his message We are called not only to be disciples ourselves but to be discipleship parents evangelizing our children so they become disciples too That sounds great but we know this is not always easy The culture often stands in the way of our raising whole and holy children Sometimes our own failures wounds and weaknesses make it difficult to pour ourselves fully into the mission Even if we are working to plant the seeds of faith how can we ensure that the soil is cultivated so the seeds can grow and flourish In Discipleship Parenting Kim Cameron Smith provides tools and insights to help parents foster seven ideal growing conditions in the home Love Balance Play Merciful Discipline Empathy Radiant Faith A Strong Marriage Raising children to know and love Christ and to share that love with others is the most important work we will ever do Let's join together in Discipleship Parenting and respond to God's call and mission for all our families Click here to register for the related webcast ABOUT THE AUTHOR Kim Cameron Smith is the founder of the Intentional Catholic Parenting online ministry and the host of the Gentle Catholic Parenting Podcast where she explores the intersection between Catholicism and the science of parenting She is a licensed attorney and a member of the California state bar She holds a B.A. from Wellesley College an M.Phil. from Oxford University a Master of Theological Studies from Harvard University and a J.D. from U.C. My First Holy Communion Sophie Piper, 2010 An appealing gift for children aged 7 to give as a memento of the occasion and a guide to the meaning of the life of faith Fostering Children's Faith Jeanne Hall, 2012-03-29

Fostering faith in children is a shared privilege and responsibility of parents godparents and the church community We promise our children at baptism that we will support them in their faith formation in the formation of their relationship with God We need to take this promise seriously This book is intended to be an accessible and helpful resource for parents and other adults who seek to foster children's faith This book succinctly explores many ways we can support children's faith formation including our day to day interactions with children the images of God we share with them how we pray together the rituals we create service opportunities we provide music we share together the stories we tell and listen to our celebration of the sacraments and more While this book has a distinctly Roman Catholic orientation much of the content will be relevant for a wider Christian audience Lastly but perhaps most importantly this book is rooted in the conviction that the God we seek relationship with and that we hope to foster our children's relationship with is one who is infinitely loving welcoming and always yearning for deeper connection with us

My First Holy Communion Melissa Musick Nussbaum, 2011 My First Holy Communion invites children to learn and to love the words we hear pray and sing at Mass each week From the Introductory Rites to the Concluding Rites this book helps children to understand why we gather as a community on Sundays to celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist

Children's Liturgy of the Word 2009 - 2010: A Weekly Resource - Celebrating the Lectionary, The Living Church, 1961 Jesus Speaks to Me on My First Holy Communion Angela M. Burrin, 2009-01-01 I am Jesus And I want to say Happy First Holy Communion Day In this unique gift book Jesus speaks warmly and lovingly to children who are receiving him in the Eucharist for the first time In twelve scenes from Scripture from Creation to Pentecost Jesus explains that it is his Father's plan for each child to be part of their family of love He invites the child to be his friend and to draw close to him in the Eucharist and in prayer Each Scripture scene is colorfully illustrated by Italian artist Maria Cristina Lo Cascio This book also features An opening dedication page Pages to record memories including photos church programs and a space for children to write or draw Traditional prayers such as the Our Father and Hail Mary

The Children of God Ruth Wangerin, 1993-11-19 Wangerin examines one small symbolic revolution against American capitalist culture It was carried out by youth who were painfully and personally aware of the problems of what they called the System though they did not necessarily understand the underlying causes of their problems They called themselves the Children of God Wangerin studied the Children of God from 1973 1978 in the United States Mexico and Italy and has kept in touch with some of them ever since This is one of the most thorough studies of the controversial cult founded in 1968 by David Berg and the only ethnography that treats it as a mystical utopian socialist movement

Pauly's Mother Paul James Mcallister, 2012-06 Told in the first person present tense from the point of view of Pauly as a child Pauly's Mother is a mostly nonfiction autobiography It is a sad moving and sometimes humorous story about Pauly's tragedy and his recovery It is set against a background of being raised Irish Catholic on the South Side of Chicago during the 1950's It is also a wonderful hopefilled upbeat story about coming of age during a more innocent era Cover

Our Lady of Everyday Life María Del Socorro Castañeda-Liles, 2018-03-01 For Mexican Catholic women in the United States devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe La Virgen is a necessary aspect of their cultural identity In this masterful ethnography María Del Socorro Castañeda Liles considers three generations of Mexican origin women between the ages of 18 and 82 She examines the Catholic beliefs the women inherited from their mothers and how these beliefs become the template from which they first learn to see themselves as people of faith She also offers a comprehensive analysis of how Catholicism creates a culture in which Mexican origin women learn how to be good girls in a manner that reduces their agency to rubble Through the nexus of faith and lived experience these women develop a type of Mexican Catholic imagination that helps them challenge the sanctification of shame guilt and aguante endurance at all cost This imagination allows these women to transgress strict notions of what a good Catholic woman should be while retaining life giving aspects of Catholicism This transgression is most visible in their relationship to La Virgen which is a fluid and deeply engaged process of self awareness in everyday life

Faith, Family, and Children with Special Needs David Rizzo, 2012-04-01. It's hard enough for today's parents to raise faith-filled children. But for the parents of kids with special needs, the challenges can be almost overwhelming. These parents' own spirituality may suffer amidst the daily obstacles of raising a child with disabilities, and they may wonder how or even if their child can ever experience a meaningful spiritual life. In Faith, Family, and Children with Special Needs, David Rizzo, whose 12-year-old daughter has autism, offers great hope for parents who want to grow in their own spirituality while helping their children with disabilities experience God in a deeper way. Throughout the book, Rizzo's abiding though sometimes tested Catholic faith is made clear as he thoughtfully explains everything from the practical, such as how parents can maintain sanity during Mass when the child with special needs becomes disruptive, to the profound, such as how parents can understand God in a way that is relevant to their predicament. At other times, Rizzo's advice is intended to help the child grow in his or her own faith, as when he explains how kids with special needs can participate meaningfully in the Eucharist. By looking at big picture issues of faith while also providing specific tips to nurture spiritual growth in parents and in their children with disabilities, Faith, Family, and Children with Special Needs will serve as a highly useful and inspiring resource for anyone in the community of faith who interacts with children with disabilities.
