Heterosexual Plots and Lesbian Narratives Marilyn Farwell, 1996 What is lesbian literature Must it contain overtly lesbian characters and portray them in a positive light Must the author be overtly or covertly lesbian Does there have to be a lesbian theme and must it be politically acceptable Marilyn Farwell here examines the work of such writers as Adrienne Rich Marion Zimmer Bradley Jeanette Winterson Gloria Naylor and Marilyn Hacker to address these questions Dividing their writings into two genres the romantic story and the heroic or quest story Farwell addresses some of the most problematic issues at the intersection of literature sex gender and postmodernism Illustrating how the generational conflict between the lesbian feminists of twenty years ago and the queer theorists of today stokes the critical fires of contemporary lesbian and literary theory Heterosexual Plots and Lesbian Narratives concludes by arguing for a broad and generous definition of lesbian writing

Bisexuality and the Challenge to Lesbian Politics Paula C Rust, 1995-10-01 The subject of bisexuality continues to divide the lesbian and gay community At pride marches in films such as Go Fish at academic conferences the role and status of bisexuals is hotly contested Within lesbian communities formed to support lesbians in a patriarchal and heterosexist society bisexual women are often perceived as a threat or as a political weakness Bisexual women feel that they are regarded with suspicion and distrust if not openly scorned Drawing on her research with over 400 bisexual and lesbian women surveying the treatment of bisexuality in the lesbian and gay press and examining the recent growth of a self consciously political bisexual movement Paula Rust addresses a range of questions pertaining to the political and social relationships between lesbians and bisexual women By tracing the roots of the controversy over bisexuality among lesbians back to the early lesbian feminist debates of the 1970s Rust argues that those debates created the circumstances in which bisexuality became an inevitable challenge to lesbian politics She also traces it forward predicting the future of sexual politics

Her Neighbor's Wife Lauren Jae Gutterman, 2019-10-04 At first glance Barbara Kalish fit the stereotype of a 1950s wife and mother Married at eighteen Barbara lived with her husband and two daughters in a California suburb where she was president of the Parent Teacher Association At a PTA training conference in San Francisco Barbara met Pearl another PTA president who also had two children and happened to live only a few blocks away from her To Barbara Pearl was the most gorgeous woman in the world and the two began an affair that lasted over a decade Through interviews diaries memoirs and letters Her Neighbor's Wife traces the stories of hundreds of women like Barbara Kalish who struggled to balance marriage and same sex desire in the postwar United States In doing so Lauren Jae Gutterman draws our attention away from the postwar landscape of urban gay bars and into the homes of married women who tended to engage in affairs with wives and mothers they met in the context of their daily lives through work at church or in their neighborhoods In the late 1960s and 1970s the lesbian feminist movement and the no fault divorce revolution transformed the lives of wives who desired women Women could now choose to divorce their husbands in order to lead openly lesbian or bisexual lives increasingly however these women were confronted by hostile state discrimination typically in legal battles over child custody Well into the 1980s many women remained ambivalent about divorce and resistant to labeling themselves as lesbian therefore complicating a simple interpretation of their lives and relationship choices By revealing the extent to which marriage has historically permitted space for wives relationships with other women Her Neighbor's Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage What a Lesbian Looks Like National Lesbian and Gay Survey (Organization),1992 The National Lesbian and Gay Survey is a mass observation project set up in 1985 to record the experience of lesbians and gay men This work draws on that material to provide an anthology of personal writings from lesbians from all walks of life which offers a picture of lesbian life in general

Spinsters and Lesbians Trisha Franzen,1996 Americans have long held fast to a rigid definition of womanhood revolving around husband home and children Women who rebelled against this definition and carved out independent lives for themselves have often been rendered invisible in U S history In this unusual comparative study Trisha Franzen brings to light the remarkable lives of two generations of autonomous women Progressive Era spinsters and mid twentieth century lesbians While both groups of women followed similar paths to independence separating from their families pursuing education finding work and creating woman centered communities they faced different material and cultural challenge and came to claim very different identities Many of the turn of the century women were prominent during their time from internationally recognized classicist Edith Hamilton through two early Directors of the Women's Bureau Mary Anderson and Freida Miller Maturing during the time of a broad and powerful women's movement they were among that era's new women the often single women who were viewed as in the vanguard of women's struggle for equality In contrast never married women after World War II especially lesbians were considered beyond the pale of real womanhood Before the women's and gay lesbian liberation movements they had no positive contemporary images of alternative lives for women Highlighting the similarities and differences between women oriented women confronting changing gender and sexuality systems Spinsters and Lesbians thus traces a continuum among women who constructed lives outside institutionalized heterosexuality What a Lesbian Looks Like National Lesbian and Gay Survey,2005-06-29 The National Lesbian and Gay Survey is a mass observation project set up in 1985 to record the experience of lesbians and gay men Since that time lesbian and gay volunteers have provided accounts on a wide range of issues pertinent to lesbian and gay life What a Lesbian Looks Like draws on this material to provide an anthology of personal writings from lesbians nationwide The volunteers come from all walks of life from the unemployed to holders of high powered jobs and represent all age groups All aspects of lesbian experience are covered including first sexual encounters long term relationships the difficulties of coming out and Clause 28 This book should be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates and academics in the fields of women s studies gender studies and cultural studies

The Advocate ,1995-04-18 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States      Back Seat of Daddy's Car Jessie Carr, Explicit age play erotic story From the 1 Erotic Short Story Best Selling Author Jessie Carr DICTIONARY Age play the act of an adult pretending to be much younger than they are usually for mutual sexual gratification Taster I stood outside the burger place the chill wind blowing around my bare legs and up the school uniform skirt If it had just been a bit longer it wouldn t have been so bad thankfully I only had to wait a minute or two before he pulled up in the car I jumped in Hi Daddy I called out knowing he loved it when I spoke in a shrill playful voice whilst biting my lip Hey princess Can I have a sweetie please Not yet wait till we get to the park He said using his daddy voice Ohhhh I said back pouting at him Put your seatbelt on He said as we drove off I pulled the long strap across me and plugged it in I looked down at myself I barely took up half the seat I was so skinny I didn t care how small I looked my daddy loves me and that s all I care about He must ve been eager today because he drove quickly and in a few minutes we arrived at the park He turned the engine off and sat looking down at me He s big but not massive even so I looked like a pixie doll compared to him My heart was beating really fast Can I have a sweetie now He twisted his mouth like he was trying to chew away a smile They re in a bag on the back seat I put my hand on the handle and as soon as I did he coughed one of those false coughs that people do to get your attention I knew exactly what he meant by it it made me smile I knew what to do I undid my seatbelt and twisted my body between the seats stretching to reach the bag at the back I knew without looking that he was staring at my legs and my long socks and my skirt was just long enough that he wouldn t quite be able to see my panties but the hope was there      Boots of Leather, Slippers of Gold Elizabeth Lapovsky Kennedy, Madeline D. Davis, 2014-05-09 Boots of Leather Slippers of Gold traces the evolution of the lesbian community in Buffalo New York from the mid 1930s up to the early 1960s Drawing upon the oral histories of 45 women it is the first comprehensive history of a working class lesbian community These poignant and complex stories show how black and white working class lesbians although living under oppressive circumstances nevertheless became powerful agents of historical change Kennedy and Davis provide a unique insider s perspective on butch fem culture and argue that the roots of gay and lesbian liberation are found specifically in the determined resistance of working class lesbians This 20th anniversary edition republishes the book for a new generation of readers It includes a new preface in which the authors reflect on where the last 20 years have taken them For anyone interested in lesbian life during the 1940s and 1950s or in the dynamics of butch fem culture this study remains the one that set the highest standard for all oral histories and ethnographies of lesbian communities anywhere Myth of the Modern Homosexual Rictor Norton,2016-10-06 With careful reasoning supported by wide ranging scholarship this study exposes the fallacies of social constructionist theories within lesbian and gay studies and makes a forceful case for the autonomy of queer identity and culture It presents evidence that queers are part of a centuries old history possessing a unified historical and cultural identity The volume reviews the fundamental historiographical issues about the nature of queer history arguing that a new generation of queer historians will need to abandon authoritarian dogma founded upon politically correct ideology rather than historical experience Norton offers a clear exposition of the evidence for ancient indigenous and pre modern queer cultural continuity revealing how knowledge of that history has been suppressed and censored and sets out the queer cultural essentialist position on the key topics of queer history role identity bisexuality orientation linguistics social control homophobia subcultures and kinship patterns Encyclopedia of Lesbian Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman,2013-08-21 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavours It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a wide range of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future
