and students on teacher training courses Eyewitness: The rise and fall of Dorling Kindersley Christopher Davis, 2009-06-30 By the close of the last millennium Dorling Kindersley had become one of the most recognisable brands in publishing Across the range of illustrated household reference titles from children s books to travel guides its distinctive look of colourful images cut out against a white background could be seen on bookshelves throughout the country and indeed the publishing world Apart from three minor acquisitions DK had grown organically over 25 years to be a publicly listed company with a turnover of 200 million some 1500 employees publishing arms across the English language markets a 50 strong international sales force that dealt with more than 400 publishers a direct selling business with 30 000 independent distributors and had expanded its skills for delivering handsomely designed reference books into the new media of videos CD ROMs and online educational content Then a series of catastrophic printing decisions brought the company to its knees and ultimately into the arms of Pearson Christopher Davis is uniquely positioned to tell the story of DK s rise and fall He joined the company at its foundation and in due course became Group Publisher The narrative he provides is a dual one encompassing the visionary genius of Peter Kindersley and the publishing revolution he fomented and charting the remarkable sometimes precarious frequently hilarious roller coaster ride as the company grew from a handful of people in a studio in South London to a substantial global business In the rapidly changing publishing climate of today this book is also a nostalgic reminder of a time when creativity could flourish unburdened by the shackles of corporate bureaucracy We Regret to Inform You Joanne Steen,2019-05-14 A compassionate guide to help Gold Star parents cope with the grief and loss of their military son or daughter Author Joanne Steen tackles the subject that terrifies parents of military personnel the death of their son or daughter on active duty In short easy to read chapters Gold Star parents find thoughtful explanations and trustworthy advice for coping with military grief Steen weaves together realistic examples with voices of other Gold Star parents connecting the readers to the wisdom of those parents who have walked in their shoes Chapters for relatives friends and professional service providers of Gold Star parents are also included supplying them with what they need to know about military loss what to expect in the parents and best practices on what to say and ways to help support them Gold Star parents will find a path to survive their life changing loss and develop the resilience to move forward Joanne Steen has more than twenty years experience in the grief and loss field with a specialty in military loss She is a board certified counselor instructor Gold Star widow and the founder of Grief Solutions a training company on grief loss and resilience Steen is also the coauthor of Military Widow A Survival Guide Naval Institute Press 2006 InfoWorld ,1990-10-22 InfoWorld is targeted to Senior IT professionals Content is segmented into Channels and Topic Centers InfoWorld also celebrates people companies and projects Catalog of Copyright Entries.
