

Sample Essay on Human Resource Management Practices

Similarities between the Domestic and International HRM

Human Resource Management, in different kinds of organizations plays a very crucial role (Sims, 2007). As a matter of fact, it is the center of corporate strategy. This is attributed to the fact it helps companies make performance improvements and form sustainable competitive advantages. What is more, it helps organizations have guiding role, especially with enterprise management.

General HRM is a term used to refer to activities undertaken by organizations for purposes of proper utilization of human resources. As such, international and domestic HRM have some similarities in how they function. This means all basic functions of these two are the same, regardless of whether they are definite in one country or in several. Such functions include utilization, motivation, procurement and allocation. What is more, both the domestic and international HRM have some major functions and activities in HR recruitment, performance management, training, industrial relations, development and compensation.

Another similarity is related to environmental forces, which greatly influence functions of HRM. Some of the external constraints include legal, economic, cultural and political. The impact these have on the manner in which HR functions are carried out in both the global and domestic environment (Sims, 2007).

What is more, both the international and domestic HRM have the same objectives. One of these objectives is that of making sure the organization has maximum satisfaction in as far as the demands for human resource are concerned. Another major objective is making sure
