Debating in Teaching and Learning English Ben

Wilson,2024-04-18 This book offers the first full length treatment of the topic of debating as a method of developing English Foreign Language EFL speaking inviting scholars and practitioners to reflect on the demands of the current age for moving forward educational practice While debating is a well known method of dialogic speaking and is widely practiced the extent to which it is integrated in adult TEFL has not been established and an understanding of its affordances for developing foreign language speaking is also limited This book fills the gap in the field of TESOL and applied linguistics on the affordances of debating as a form of dialogic speaking that can promote a holistic understanding and improvement of experience of education and indeed academic outcomes The two main themes that situate the work are those of dialogic speaking and affect at times referred to as humanistic positive psychology and social and emotional learning The book details the experiences of an adult EFL debate group in a private language school in the North of Italy It reports how the participants experience the pedagogy so as to offer insights into it as a form of teaching speaking in adult EFL as well as providing a practical framework with lesson plans and curriculum The affordances of debating emerge as being social cognitive educational and communicative and are discussed alongside the work of language teaching scholars Curran and Freire and more broadly within a Social Constructivist approach to education As such debating is discussed as being a holistic and dialogic form of pedagogy Particular attention to experience often affective is also found to be fundamental in planning and assessing educational outcomes for both teachers and learners

Content-Based Instruction in Foreign Language Education Stephen B. Stryker,Betty Lou Leaver,1997-09-01

This book offers concrete and practical ideas for implementing content based instruction using subject matter rather than grammar through eleven case studies of cutting edge models in a broad variety of languages academic settings and levels of proficiency The highly innovative models illustrate content based instruction programs for both commonly and less commonly taught languages Arabic Croatian French German Indonesian Italian Russian Serbian and Spanish and for proficiency levels ranging from beginners to fluent speakers They include single teacher and multi teacher contexts and such settings as typical language department classrooms specialty schools intensive language programs and university programs in foreign languages across the curriculum All of the contributors are pioneers and practitioners of content based instruction and the methods they present are based on actual classroom experiences Each describes the rationale curriculum design materials and evaluation procedures used in an actual curriculum and discusses the implications of the approach for adult language acquisition

Drama-based foreign language learning Helga Tschurtschenthaler,2013 What does another language do to the individual who learns and uses it How is the individual s idea of self affected by the other language This case study deals with these two overarching questions within the context of learning English as a foreign language through drama at a German upper secondary school in South Tyrol It investigates how the students see themselves in their roles how they perceive themselves as users of the foreign language and how they experience themselves in role in another language The results show how powerful drama based activities can be and what educational impact they have Teacher/student Responsibility in Foreign Language Learning Beverly-Anne Carter,2006 Original Scholarly Monograph Teacher Development Over Time Tessa Woodward,Kathleen Graves,Donald Freeman,2018-04-09 Teacher Development Over Time Practical Activities for Language Teachers addresses teacher learning over the span of the careers of both novice and experienced teachers in English Language Teaching ELT It is designed to a help novice ELT teachers to see the ways in which their learning may open up careers and communities over a professional life span and b support experienced ELT teachers in understanding where they are in their careers and how they may respond creatively to the challenges in that particular career phase Part 1 synthesises the views of major research on teaching as it is experienced over time by teachers and discusses the implications Readers engage with these ideas via the activities in Part 2 which encourage them to reflect on their career paths and on possible themes for future work Part 3 describes ways teachers can set the Part 2 activities within a busy professional life and Part 4 helps teachers to engage in further explorations on their own or with others By merging a strong line of research with very practical tools for understanding professional development Teacher Development Over Time proves to be an indispensable resource for language teachers as well as teacher educators and mentors Meaningful Action Jane Arnold,Tim Murphey,2013-03-28 This volume explores the importance of meaningful action for language teaching and learning paying tribute to the enduring influence of Earl Stevick With contributions from 19 ELT authors and influential academics Meaningful Action draws upon and acknowledges the huge influence of Earl Stevick on language teaching Stevick s work on meaningful action explored how learners can engage with activities that appeal to sensory and cognitive processes ensuring that meaning is constructed by the learner s internal characteristics and by their relationship with other learners and the teacher This edited volume focuses on meaningful action in three domains learner internal factors and relationships between the people involved in the learning process classroom activity and diverse frameworks supporting language learning Religious Faith and Teacher Knowledge in English Language Teaching Bradley Baurain,2016-01-14 The field of TESOL Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages stands at an active crossroads issues of language culture learning identity morality and spirituality mix daily in classrooms around the world What roles might teachers personal religious beliefs play in their professional activities and contexts Until recently such questions had been largely excluded from academic conversations in TESOL Yet the qualitative research at the core of this book framed and presented within a teacher knowledge paradigm demonstrates that personal faith and professional identities and practices can and do interact and interrelate in ways that are both meaningful and problematic This study s Christian TESOL teacher participants working overseas in Southeast Asia perceived explained and interpreted a variety of such connections within their lived experience As a result the beliefs practices nexus deserves to be further theorized researched and discussed Religious beliefs and human spirituality as foundational and enduring aspects of human thought and culture and thus of teaching and learning deserve a place at the TESOL table Education for Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development Ron Best, 2000-06-01

Drawing on successful practice and relating such practice to theoretical insights this comprehensive treatment of the challenge of educating children spiritually morally socially and culturally offers enlightenment for individual teachers classroom practice as well as for whole school approaches
