International Perspectives on Rethinking Evil in Film and Television Tüysüz, Dilan, 2020-12-22 Aestheticization of evil is a frequently used formula in cinema and television However the representation of evil as an aesthetic object pushes it out of morality Moral judgments can be pushed aside when evil is aestheticized in movies or TV series because there is no real victim Thus situations such as murder or war can become a source of aesthetic pleasure Narratives in cinema and television can sometimes be based on a simple good evil dichotomy and sometimes they can be based on individual or social experiences of evil and follow a more complicated method Despite the various ways evil is depicted it is a moral framework in film and television that must be researched to study the implications of aestheticized evil on human nature and society International Perspectives on Rethinking Evil in Film and Television examines the changing representations of evil on screen in the context of the commonness normalization aestheticization marginalization legitimization or popularity of evil The chapters provide an international perspective of the representations of evil through an exploration of the evil tales or villains in cinema and television Through looking at these programs this book highlights topics such as the philosophy of good and evil the portrayal of heroes and villains the appeal of evil and evil's correspondence with gender and violence This book is ideal for sociologists professionals researchers and students working or studying in the field of cinema and television and practitioners academicians and anyone interested in the portrayal and aestheticization of evil in international film and television Emerging Infectious Diseases ,2008 The Prague School Peter Steiner,2014-09-10 The Prague Linguistic Circle came into being on the afternoon of October 6 1926 when five Czech and Russian linguists gathered to hear a lecture by a German colleague From this international beginning the interests of the group grew to first encompass language in all its functional heterogeneity and then finally all of culture which the Circle conceived of as a structure of sign systems Semiotics was thus the overarching discipline for the Prague School serving to organize all phenomena shared and exchanged by a cultural community In recent years increasing attention has been paid to the importance of the Prague School but writing about it has frequently been marred by misconceptions The central aim of this volume is to correct those misconceptions and to present the diversity of interests within the Prague School literary criticism linguistics theory of theater folklore and philosophy These essays by Bogatyr v Jakobson Karcevskij Muka ovsk Rieger Vodi ka and Honzl are here translated into English for the first time Some have a special historical value in illuminating critical stages of structuralist thinking others reveal the timeliness of the School s contributions for the theoretical conflicts of our day Each essay is accompanied by an informative introductory note and the whole is followed by the editor s Postscript tracing the roots of structuralist aesthetics Literary Culture and U.S. Imperialism John Carlos Rowe,2000 John Carlos Rowe considered one of the most eminent and progressive critics of American literature has in recent years become instrumental in shaping the path of American studies His latest book examines literary responses to U S imperialism from the late eighteenth century to the 1940s Interpreting texts by Charles Brockden Brown Poe Melville John Rollin Ridge Twain Henry Adams Stephen Crane W E B Du Bois John Neihardt Nick Black Elk and Zora Neale Hurston Rowe argues that U S literature has a long tradition of responding critically or contributing to our imperialist ventures Following in the critical footsteps of Richard Slotkin and Edward Said Literary Culture and U S Imperialism is particularly innovative in taking account of the public and cultural response to imperialism In this sense it could not be more relevant to what is happening in the scholarship and should be vital reading for scholars and students of American literature and culture Ancient Greeks on the Human Condition Matthew Sims,2021-08-19 This book examines the writings of four ancient Greeks Homer Thucydides Euripides and Aristophanes Each of these four individuals represents a different approach toward the human condition ranging from the heroic and tragic to the comic and absurd This book focuses on how the human condition can best be understood within the framework of these four perspectives by examining the major contributions of these Greek writers whether in the form of epic Homer s Iliad history Thucydides History of the Peloponnesian War or drama the plays of Euripides and Aristophanes These various perceptions of Greek thought illuminate our understanding of what it means to be fully human By focusing on the concepts of the heroic tragic comic and absurd we can see how these ancient Greek authors still provide key insights for us today as they clarify those timeless features that define the human condition Human Economics Sara

Casagrande,2023-08-11 The term human economics is sometimes used within economic theory with the hope of repositioning economic discipline as a human and social science but with scarce success Indeed although great economists have always carefully considered human nature it has been largely neglected in modern economics This book explores the potentials of a human economics arguing that the complexity and peculiarities of human nature should be central to the study of economics Complex economic phenomena are subject to laws and limits that reveal their internal order in spite of the apparent randomness and unpredictability The book embraces the contributions of thinkers and economists who have tried to fully consider human nature and society within their biological environment From these solid foundations the book introduces a different Weltanschauung offers an analysis of socio economic paradigms and develops an alternative theoretical framework On the basis of a transdisciplinary methodology the book investigates human nature interactions and systems up to the macroeconomic cyclical development of the capitalist system Future perspectives and issues facing modern economies are also discussed from environmental sustainability to globalization and socio political challenges This book marks an original contribution to the literature on retooling economic discipline and presents useful food for thought for scholarly readers while remaining accessible to graduates who are studying mainstream economics

Faith, Reason, and Power in the Early Modern World Gloria K. Fiero,1998 In Volume Four readers are exposed to the cornerstones of the early modern world from the age of the Baroque to the art music and culture of the eighteenth century As in previous volumes the author presents lively discussion accompanied by literary excerpts and examples to illuminate a variety of topics including Catholicism s global reach the birth of modern philosophy the political theories of Hobbes and Locke the Enlightenment and the music of Hayden and Mozart to name a few

Poetics and Politics of Shame in Postcolonial Literature David Attwell,Annalisa Pes,Susanna Zinato,2019-05-07 Poetics and Politics of Shame in Postcolonial Literature provides a new and wide ranging appraisal of shame in colonial and postcolonial literature in English Bringing together young and established voices in postcolonial studies these essays tackle shame and racism shame and agency shame and ethical recognition the problem of shamelessness the shame of willed forgetfulness Linked by a common thread of reflections on shame and literary writing the essays consider specifically whether the aesthetic and ethical capacities of literature enable a measure of stability or recuperation in the presence of shame s destructive potential The obscenity of the in human both in the colonial setting and in aftermaths that show little sign of abating entails the acute significance of shame as a subject for continuing and urgent critical attention
