Bradlaugh,2014-12-05 As an unbeliever I ask leave to plead that humanity has been real gainer from scepticism and that the gradual and growing rejection of Christianity like the rejection of the faiths which preceded it has in fact added and will add to man s happiness and well being I maintain that in physics science is the outcome of scepticism and that general progress is impossible without scepticism on matters of religion I mean by religion every form of belief which accepts or asserts the supernatural      Humanity's Gain from Unbelief (Classic Reprint) Charles Bradlaugh,2018-03-21 Excerpt from Humanity s

which the Christian Church was dominant The men who advocated liberty were imprisoned racked and burned so long as the Church was strong enough to be merciless The Rev Francis Minton Hector of Middlewich in his recent earnest volume 1 on the struggles of labor admits that a few centuries ago slavery was acknowledged throughout Christendom to have the divine sanction 1 Capital and Wages p 19      Volume 10, Tome I: Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology Jon Stewart,2016-12-05

Kierkegaard has always enjoyed a rich reception in the fields of theology and religious studies This reception might seem obvious given that he is one of the most important Christian writers of the nineteenth century but Kierkegaard was by no means a straightforward theologian in any traditional sense He had no enduring interest in some of the main fields of theology such as church history or biblical studies and he was strikingly silent on many key Christian dogmas Moreover he harbored a degree of animosity towards the university theologians and churchmen of his own day Despite this he has been a source of inspiration for numerous religious writers from different denominations and traditions Tome I is dedicated to the reception of Kierkegaard among German Protestant theologians and religious thinkers The writings of some of these figures turned out to be instrumental for Kierkegaard s breakthrough internationally shortly after the turn of the twentieth century Leading figures of the movement of dialectical theology such as Karl Barth Emil Brunner Paul Tillich and Rudolf Bultmann spawned a steadily growing awareness of and interest in Kierkegaard s thought among generations of German theology students Emanuel Hirsch was greatly influenced by Kierkegaard and proved instrumental in disseminating his thought by producing the first complete German edition of Kierkegaard s published works Both Barth and Hirsch established unique ways of reading and appropriating Kierkegaard which to a certain degree determined the direction and course of Kierkegaard studies right up to our own times      Humanity's Gain from Unbelief Charles Bradlaugh,1932      Second Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore, Including the Additions Made Since 1882 Johns Hopkins University.
