Finding the Forgotten Feast

HANK SHAW

"In Hunt, Gather, Cook, [Shaw] makes a powerful argument for joining him in a few of those pursuits, if only to become aware of the great bounty that surrounds us in the natural world, even when we live in urban environments—and perhaps particularly then." — The New York Times

Food and Masculinity in Contemporary Autobiographies Nieves Pascual Soler, 2017-12-12 This book is concerned with food autobiographies written by men from the 1980s to the present It concentrates on how food has transformed autobiographical narratives and how these define the ways men eat and cook nowadays After presenting a historical overview of the place of food within men s autobiography this volume analyzes the reasons for our present interest in food and the proliferation of life narratives focused on cooking Then it centers around the identities that male chefs are taking on in the writing of their lives and the generic models they use the heroic the criminal and the hunting autobiographical scripts This study gives evidence that autobiographies are crucial in the redefinition of the new masculinities emerging in the kitchen It will appeal to readers interested in Food Studies Autobiographical Studies Men s Studies and American Literature and Culture

Cooking Wild John Ash, James O. Fraioli, 2025-05-01 To eat wild foods you needn t crawl through the forest or hunt your own game Many wild foods are as close by as your local supermarket But this doesn t mean that wild foods aren t worth the hunt This book takes a big view of wild including recipes and information on both foraged uncultivated foods as well as looking at the progeny of wild foods more conveniently found for sale alongside their conventional cousins Increasingly Americans are concerned about where their food comes from how it s produced packaged and marketed Heritage breeds paleo diets farmers markets and environmental and climate concerns all point to increased interest in foods that are as natural and un manipulated read healthy as they can be Plants seafood meat and birds are all covered in more than 150 recipes and will serve as a historical agricultural education for your kitchen
