Metaphor Competition in the Book of Job Lance R. Hawley, 2018-03-26 Within the book of Job the interlocutors Job the friends and Yahweh seem to largely ignore one another's arguments This observation leads some to propose that the dialogue lacks conceptual coherence Lance Hawley argues that the interlocutors tangentially and sometimes overtly attend to previously stated points of view and attempt to persuade their counterparts through the employment of metaphor Hawley uses the theoretical approach of Conceptual Metaphor Theory to trace the concepts of speech and animals throughout the dialogue Beyond explaining the individual metaphors in particular texts he shows how speech metaphors compete with one another most perceptibly in the expressions of Job's words are wind With regard to animal metaphors coherence is especially perceptible in the job is a predatory animal metaphor In these expressions the dialogue demonstrates intentional picking up on previously stated arguments Hawley argues that the animal images in the divine speeches are not metaphorical in spite of recent scholarly interpretation that reads them as such Rather Yahweh appears as a sage to question the negative status of wild animals that Job and his friends assume in their significations of people are animals This is especially apparent in Yahweh's strophes on the lion and the wild donkey both of which appear multiple times in the metaphorical expressions of Job and his friends

Hunting Dalia Bradley Gabriella (author), 1901 Framed unable to investigate the crime she has been accused of and clear her name Dalia stands trial and receives four life sentences without parole However the new leader on Xydlan has requested her extradition and by order of Earth's leader General Karreman the judge agrees Taken into custody by the Xydlanians she is resigned to her fate There will be no trial on Xydlan of that she is sure Will they behead her Send her to the pyre Her life has come to an end There is no hope left The night before departing for Xydlan a sound wakes her and two figures come to her assistance Two men with heads like dogs Dalia is sure she's already been executed and she's entered the afterlife She is going to face her final judgement

The Aesthetics of Mandé Hunting Tradition in African Fiction Amadou Ouédraogo, 2017 From its medieval origins to the present Mand culture in West Africa is known for its highly intriguing art and tradition of hunting undeniably one of its most conspicuous distinctive features Totally entrenched in myth legend and history firmly grounded in the supernatural the divine and the abstruse hunting is altogether a cult a ritual gesture a token of allegiance to divine forces Considered to be a dauntless intrusion of man into the realm of metaphysics and the unknown the hunting vocation transcends by far the confines of human and tangible spheres This study examines various articulations of the hunting art and tradition as they are conveyed in numerous African literary and cinematographic works It elucidates the mythical and supernatural magnitude of the hunting activity by showing how it is presided over by immutable deities and tutelary figures

Held to be endowed with infrangible supernatural and esoteric proportions hunting is deemed to be a reflection of Mand people's worldview a vibrant expression of how they perceive and articulate their existence as part of and in relation to the world From all perspectives traditional hunting in Mand society is viewed as a noble dignified and revered activity sustained by a vehement sense of brotherhood esprit de corps faithful loyalty compassion munificence It encompasses a set of principles and values enjoined by transcendent forces in illo tempore and meant to serve as timeless paradigmatic ideals to be preserved and handed down along generations By persistently echoing the magnificence of the hunting art and tradition African artists place the vocation at the heart of contemporary Africans yearning quest for origins identity and plenitude
