

Of Mice and Men Quotes

The Boss

- Isolated by being the boss 'not a labouring man' this shows how he was above the ranch hands in authority and power but by being so is isolated from the others
- The boss is symbolic of the racial discrimination present at that time 'he give the stable buck hell...ya see the stable bucks a nigger' this tells us how because of the 'stable bucks' colour the boss is more harsh towards him than the others.
- The boss is a straight-to-business type of person. 'You got your work slips?' this shows that the boss is self-centred as he only cares for his business rather than the well-being of his workers.
- The boss is suspicious and conscious of George and Lennie 'Say-what you selling?' this shows how he is detached from the others and therefore become wary. 'I seen wise guys before' further emphasising his doubt.
