

Communes first appeared in Belgium, France and Italy at the end of the 11th century. They were ~~actually a town~~<sup>≡ q s 31</sup> where everyone agreed to take an oath of mutual aid<sup>e</sup>. Communes were formed because Europe had just finally turned away the attacks ~~from~~<sup>from</sup> the Barbarians, and the people needed better protection and better legal and economic systems.

Communes then were ~~sort of~~<sup>q</sup> like districts or states that were usually respected by the King of that country.

Sometimes ~~king~~<sup>the</sup> would honor ~~it~~<sup>them</sup> with a charter.

At different times, living in a commune could mean simply a local self-government<sup>31</sup> and at other times, it could mean a complete independence from the reigning authorities. All of the communes were different but there were fundamental similarities between them. Similarities, like loyalty to your fellow communers above all else, ~~she~~<sup>sp</sup> sharing of common expenses, like the upkeep of fortifications, a group of elected officials who who were the political authority, an authoritative structure that was directed toward keeping the peace ~~an~~<sup>d</sup> protecting the community members, a communal court where disputes were judged, and all economic affairs like taxes and trade<sup>e</sup> being regulated in the community's best interest.
