

MASTER OF THE EAST FORK

A Novel by
CARROLL C. JONES

Master Of The East Fork

John B. Boles

Master Of The East Fork:

Chattooga John Lane, 2013-05-01 Before the novel and the film Deliverance appeared in the early 1970s any outsiders one met along the Chattooga River were likely serious canoeists or anglers In later years untold numbers and kinds of people have felt the draw of the river's torrents which pour down the Appalachians along the Georgia South Carolina border Because of Deliverance the Chattooga looms enigmatically in our shared imagination as iconic as Twain's Mississippi or maybe Conrad's Congo This is John Lane's search for the real Chattooga for the truths that reside somewhere in the river's rapids along its shores or in its travelers' hearts Lane balances the dark indifferent mythical river of Deliverance against the Chattooga known to locals and to the outdoors enthusiasts who first mastered its treacherous vortices and hydraulics Starting at its headwaters Lane leads us down the river and through its complex history to its current status as a National Wild and Scenic River Along the way he stops for talks with conservation activists seventh generation residents locals who played parts in the movie day visitors and others Lane weaves into each encounter an abundance of details drawn from his perceptive readings and viewings of Deliverance and his wide ranging knowledge of the Chattooga watershed At the end of his run Lane leaves us still fully possessed by the Chattooga's mystery yet better informed about its place in his world and ours

Masters and Slaves in the House of the Lord John B. Boles, 2021-03-17 Much that is commonly accepted about slavery and religion in the Old South is challenged in this significant book The eight essays included here show that throughout the antebellum period southern whites and blacks worshipped together heard the same sermons took communion and were baptized together were subject to the same church discipline and were buried in the same cemeteries What was the black perception of white controlled religious ceremonies How did whites reconcile their faith with their racism Why did freedmen as soon as possible after the Civil War withdraw from the biracial churches and establish black denominations This book is essential reading for historians of religion the South and the Afro American experience

Master of the East Fork Carroll Jones, 2014-10-15 More than a decade before the American Civil War handsome young Basil Edmunston is exiled to oversee his family's immense farm in the wilds of western North Carolina Lonely and unsure he is up to the task the poor boy immediately falls victim to slave vexations and the allure of two mountain belles Julia and Altha With twists and turns Basil resolves the romantic triangle manages his responsibilities and suffers a savage encounter with the despicable antagonist Sam Beck

Beck, 2018-12-19 Geologists and geographers study how to develop how and where karst develops and how sinkholes form but engineers must use this information to develop karst terrane Over the past ten years these multidisciplinary conferences on the applied aspects of karst hydrogeology and engineering have been successful in bringing together engineers geologists other scientists and government regulators who must safely establish human infrastructure on karst terrane whilst protecting the environment

The essences of these conferences has always been communciation between geologists and engineers with an emplasis on practical applications and case studies This text contains the proceedings of the fifth conference on karst geohazards It presents 65 papers that cover topics such as groundwater contamination through sinkholes and the karst surface stormwater
