Five Into Twilight:

American Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology, 1922      Studying Shakespeare in Performance John Russell-Brown, 2011-07-14 John Russell Brown is arguably the most influential scholar in the field of Shakespeare in performance This collection brings together and makes accessible his most important writings across the past half century or so Ranging across space words audiences directors and themes the book maps John Russell Brown's search for a fuller understanding of Shakespeare's plays in performance New introductory notes for each chapter give a fascinating insight into his critical and scholarly journey Together the essays provide an authoritative and engaging account of how to study Shakespeare's plays as texts for performance Drawing readers into a wide variety of approaches and debates this book will be important and provocative reading for anyone studying Shakespeare or staging one of his plays      The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen, 1999 Donald Allen's prophetic anthology had an electrifying effect on two generations at least of American poets and readers More than the repetition of familiar names and ideas that most anthologies seem to be about here was the declaration of a collective intelligent and thoroughly visionary work in progress the primary example for its time of the anthology as manifesto Its republication today complete with poems statements on poetics and autobiographical projections provides us again with a model of how a contemporary anthology can and should be shaped In these essentials it remains as fresh and useful a guide as it was in 1960 Jerome Rothenberg editor of Poems for the Millennium The New American Poetry is a crucial cultural document central to defining the poetics and the broader cultural dynamics of a particular historical moment Alan Golding author of From Outlaw to Classic Canons in American Poetry

Naipaul's Strangers Dagmar Barnouw, 2003 From his reporting on Islamic true believers to his descriptions of the postcolonial world V S Naipaul has been a controversial figure in contemporary letters Winner of the Nobel Prize Naipaul has traveled throughout the world looking at its varied cultures and seeking out others stories recording and transforming them His engagement with postcolonial cultures informs his novels such as Guerrillas and A Bend in the River However it is his documentaries such as Among the Believers and Beyond Belief and his works that combine actual and fictional histories and memories Finding the Center The Enigma of Arrival and A Way in the World that best exhibit a growing awareness of the complexities of cultural difference and the incompleteness and uncertainty of understanding strangers In this book Dagmar Barnouw explores the sophisticated strategies and experimentations that Naipaul employs in his cultural critique and in his enterprise of learning about and documenting the enduring strangeness of this world      Large Concordance to the Bible of the Last Translation Allowed by Authority Clement Cotton, 1635      The Boy's Yearly Book, 1863      Geography, Religion, Gods, and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean Erica Ferg, 2020-01-16 Geography Religion Gods and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean explores the influence of geography on religion and highlights a largely unknown story of religious history in the Eastern Mediterranean In the Levant agricultural communities of Jews Christians and Muslims jointly venerated and largely shared three important saints or holy figures Jewish Elijah Christian St George and Muslim al Khi r These figures share peculiar characteristics such as associations with rain greenness fertility and storms Only in the Eastern Mediterranean are Elijah St George and al Khi r shared between religious communities or characterized by these same agricultural attributes attributes that also were shared by regional religious figures from earlier time periods such as the ancient Near Eastern Storm god Baal Hadad and Levantine Zeus This book tells the story of how that came to be and suggests that the figures share specific characteristics over a very long period of time because these motifs were shaped by the geography of the region Ultimately this book suggests that regional geography has influenced regional religion that Judaism Christianity and Islam are not historically or textually speaking separate religious traditions even if Jews Christians and Muslims are members of distinct religious communities and that shared religious practices between members of these and other local religious communities are not unusual Instead shared practices arose out of a common geographical environment and an interconnected religious heritage and are a natural historical feature of religion in the Eastern Mediterranean This volume will be of interest to students of ancient Near Eastern religions Judaism Christianity Islam sainthood agricultural communities in the ancient Near East Middle Eastern religious and cultural history and the relationships between geography and religion America ,1915 Exercises on the Globes; Interspersed with Some present and future from digital games to tabletop games and its use in entertainment education and military planning With examples from Call of Duty Modern Warfare Harpoon Warhammer 40 000 and more Games with military themes date back to antiquity and yet they are curiously neglected in much of the academic and trade literature on games and game history This volume fills that gap providing a diverse set of perspectives on wargaming s past present and future In Zones of Control contributors consider wargames played for entertainment education and military planning in terms of design critical analysis and historical contexts They consider both digital and especially tabletop games most of which cover specific historical conflicts or are grounded in recognizable real world geopolitics Game designers and players will find the historical and critical contexts often missing from design and hobby literature military analysts will find connections to game design and the humanities and academics will find documentation and critique of a sophisticated body of cultural work in which the complexity of military conflict is represented in ludic systems and procedures Each section begins with a long anchoring chapter by an established authority which is followed by a variety of shorter pieces both analytic and anecdotal Topics include the history of playing at war operations research and systems design wargaming and military history wargaming s ethics and politics gaming irregular and non kinetic warfare and wargames as artistic practice House & Garden ,1915
