After completing the Module 8 Pre-Test, please open the Pre-Test and look over the questions you missed. It is a good idea to write down all of the questions you missed so that you're sure to add that information to your notes.

8.D1: Roots of the Cold War

-How did the map of Europe change after WWII?

After WWII, the European continent including Russia, greatly changed. Soviet Union gained support from Moscow. Western European countries generally regained their freedom and self governance/sovereignty.

-What is a Cold War?

As a Cold War, the two nations are not fighting directly. Instead, they spend money on military and technology. They also often support other nations that fight for to gain power or control over the other side.

Why were the United States and Soviet Union so different?

US Gover- nance	United States	Soviet Govern- ance
Structure type	capitalism (free market)	socialism (central control)
	the United States strongly believed in their economic system of capitalism, believing that it would free economic growth and that the government should not regulate economic activities (capitalism would prosper and flourish with private property and choice)	the Soviet Union believed that the central government with capitalism and that would always end up making mistakes all the time. They wanted government to be able to control things.
