Trading an unwanted destiny for an unknown future, Claire finds herself in the middle of Nashville's elite society and believes her dream of creating a lasting impression in the world of art may finally be within reach. All that Sutton Monroe holds dear lies in ruin. He's determined to reclaim his heritage and to make the men who murdered his father pay. Tamera Alexander, 2014-03-25 Pink is not what Eleanor Braddock ordered but maybe it would soften the tempered steel of a woman who came through a war and still had one to fight. Plain practical Eleanor Braddock knows she will never marry but with a dying soldier's last whisper, she believes her life can still have meaning and determines to find his widow. Impoverished and struggling to care for her ailing father, Eleanor arrives at Belmont Mansion, home of her aunt Adelia Acklen, the richest woman in America and possibly the most demanding as well. Adelia insists on finding her niece a husband but a simple act of kindness leads Eleanor down a far different path, building a home for destitute widows and fatherless children from the Civil War. While Eleanor knows her own heart, she also knows her aunt will never approve of this endeavor. Archduke Marcus Gottfried has come to Nashville from Austria in search of a life he determines instead of one determined for him. Hiding his royal heritage, Marcus longs to combine his passion for nature with his expertise in architecture but his plans to incorporate natural beauty into the design of the widows and children's home run contrary to Eleanor's wishes. As work on the home draws them closer together, Marcus and Eleanor find common ground and a love neither of them expects. But Marcus is not the man Adelia has chosen for Eleanor, and even if he were someone who knows his secrets, is about to reveal them all. From USA Today bestselling author Tamera Alexander comes a moving historical novel about a bold young woman drawn to a group of people forgotten by Nashville society and to the one man with whom she has no business falling in love.
