Materialities of Age and Ageing: Concepts of a Material Gerontology Grit Höppner,Monika Urban,2019-06-18 In gerontological research the understanding of age and ageing changed in the last decade Biologic determined explanations no longer prevail in this research field Instead ideas of social constructivism are frequently used These ideas define the state of age and the process of ageing as social constructions steeping ageing in social and cultural assumptions ascriptions and expectations From a social constructivist perspective age and ageing are not just identified as dependency deficit and need for care as it was foremost accelerated from a biological perspective but with the life course and thus with individual lifestyles experiences attitudes and practices as well as institutional and economic structures A prominent social constructivist concept is doing age Similar to doing gender the concept of doing age assumes age as taking place in the form of a social praxis within everyday life interactions between people and thus in performances embedded in discourses through which social hierarchies and ideals proceed Despite the paradigm shift that social constructivist concepts enable in gerontological thinking they reveal their blind spot when it comes to the materiality of ageing and thus to fleshy sensual experiences human and non human ontologies and agencies Addressing these materialities of ageing brings up its own critique on definitions of ageing bodies and material environments This framing does not presume that age and ageing are solely products of human to human interactions or those of formative environments or of discourses Rather humans non humans and discourses become essential parts of ageing processes Such a material framing enables us new insights into forms of age and ageing and thus offers an opportunity for scholars to engage critically with materialities of age and ageing This eBook explores theoretical methodological and empirical concepts of such a Material Gerontology Doing Research in Social Work and Social Care Catherine Flynn,Fiona McDermott,2024-12-04 Do you want to understand how best to embrace the challenges surprises and successes of research This book acts as a journey through research to empower you to make the necessary connections between research and professional practice From understanding the concepts of research and gathering data to guiding you in writing it up and achieving positive change this book will give you a confident start with clarity on core concepts and getting it right ethically an insight into diversity in approaches the impact of context and how to overcome problems A better understanding of the realities of social work and social care practice Step by step guidance at each point in the research process Equipped with a wealth of case studies and real world examples to help you put your knowledge into practice this book is the perfect companion for students who want to transition to successful practitioner researchers Governance of the Global and Extra-Terrestrial Commons Michael Roe,2023-06-26 This book provides a unique analysis of the complex relationship between governance and the global commons It has a specific reference to the dynamic and growing outer space economy and society and how experience in the maritime sector which exhibits many of the same issues and challenges as outer space can be useful in suggesting moves forward in policy making and design This book fills a large gap in the literature of both governance and the development of outer space Whilst the maritime sector has a long history of debate albeit little in terms of governance and policy making outer space has much less and what there has been commonly focused upon technical considerations The importance of this book is that the failures of maritime governance need to be avoided in the outer space sector which exhibits many of the same issues particularly those related to the global commons Innovative and exciting this book will be of interest to academics studying corporate governance business management and space capitalism
