Guiding the Human Resources Function in Education M. Scott Norton, 2017-03-29 The primary focus of the book is to emphasize the major changes in the leadership responsibilities of directors of human resources in education. This purpose underscores the necessity for human resources directors to gain new knowledge and skills in order to assure that the personnel concept is considered in all school district policy and administrative program decisions. The primary processes of the human resources function remain significant, but the function's importance is continually increasing as new and innovative changes and research findings are evidenced in education. Personnel recruitment, for example, now necessitates primary attention to recruitment. Innovation in mentoring activities now includes reverse mentoring, peer mentoring, and group mentoring. Metrics now loom important and necessary in program planning, accountability, and assessment activities. The knowledge and skills required for new innovations in personnel were not always available in the program preparations of individuals who focused on preparation for general school administration. This book serves to serve practicing human resources directors and others that will serve the personnel function in the school principalship and other administrative roles to understand and meet the demands of today's human resources goals and objectives.

Human Resources Management In Education Austin Ezenne, 2012-12-01 This book Human Resources Management in Education: Developing Countries Perspectives contains eleven chapters. Human resources in an educational organisation refer to all the human beings working in that organisation, including teachers, students, administrators, and all other members of staff working in that organisation. The study of human resources management in education will provide you with a theoretical and practical knowledge about the processes of acquiring employees, establishing good relationships with them, training and developing them, retaining and compensating them for their services. These are important because effective school leadership and management have become very crucial in recent times in the management of educational organisations. Numerous problems are facing many school systems in developing countries today, and human, financial, and material resources are scarce, and therefore strategic management of all resources is crucial for achieving the goals of the educational systems and the school organisations
